MEMORIAL SERVICES

Sunday, June 26, 1983

CHIEF CAPPELLI: Could I have your attention, please? We are ready to start with the Memorial Services, would you please, the ones in the back, sit down, please?

Father Foley says and the ones in front sit down, too.

We are about to commence the Memorial Service. I would like to call on Reverend Father Foley for the invocation.

INVOCATION

FATHER FOLEY: Let us pray. Good and gracious Father, as we officially begin our 61st Convention, we would begin as we should begin all things, by asking your presence among us. We know that with your help, guidance, and your grace, we can perform our duties so much better; and so we ask that you would give us the Holy Spirit this evening to guide us in our deliberations and our commemorations that we should do during this convention; and therefore we ask you, Father, to bless us all assembled here this evening and in particular our departed members. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

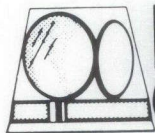

CHIEF CAPPELLI: Thank you, Father. Chief Richard Farrenkoff, Host Chief, Hyannis Fire Department.

ADDRESS OF WELCOME

CHIEF FARRENKOFF: Thank you. Mr. President, Officers and Directors of the Board of Directors, Fire Chiefs, wives and guests. I wish to welcome you to the 61st Annual Conference of the New England Association of Fire Chiefs which you have again held here at Dunfey's Hyannis Hotel. You have already decided to hold your conferences here in Hyannis for the years 1984 and 1985, so we must be doing something right here in Hyannis.

I wish at this time to acknowledge three members and their wives whom I have personally worked very closely with on this 61st Conference: To Chief James Brennan and his wife Louise; Chief Arthur Gaudet and his wife Pauline and Chief Edward Creighton and his wife Rita. Many thanks to you gentlemen and your wives from my wife Janet and myself.

As Host Chief of this conference, I wish you all a very enjoyable and successful stay here in Hyannis and sure hope the weather holds. We'll do our utmost to extend to you all the hospitality for which Hyannis is so well known. Thank you.

CHIEF CAPPELLI: Thank you, Chief. One more welcome, Chief Michael Moise from the Providence Fire Department.

ADDRESS OF WELCOME

CHIEF MOISE: Thank you, Chief Cappelli. Reverend clergy, distinguished officers of the New England Association, ladies and gentlemen. On behalf of Chief Cappelli who asked me back at Anthony's Pier 4 to do the welcoming address, and of which I completely forgot until I was sitting in the establishment on the lower level and former Captain Bob Farrell of the New York City Fire Department and Engine 82 looked at the program and said: Oh, you're speaking. I said: I am? Yes, you are. So here I am.

But on behalf of Chief Cappelli who, as you know, is a man of very few words, so I will emulate him and also be of very few words. Seriously, the conferences, of which this is the 61st, and of which our good friend Chief Jim Grote has attended every single one since they began and is with us for the 61st this evening and can tell you many stories I'm sure, but on the conference note, I can say from my own personal experience, and I believe that many of you can, many of you Chiefs can relate the same information that we have gained. We have been able to bring new ideas into our departments, and most particularly during these challenging times of budgetary constraints, of union problems, of consolidation, of contractual services and all of those challenges — and I say challenges very advisedly — because that's what they are, but the most important challenge we have is to protect the communities in which we live and to which we are responsible for their safety.

And it is on that note that we gain from these conferences those important things to help us better do our job. The innovations I speak about, for example, in my own department, jaws of life. I never heard of that thing. Went to a conference, found out that we could get federal monies. We were the first in the state to acquire the jaws of life. At another conference I spoke with a good friend chief, found out that the city of New York had some spare fire apparatus, surplus fire apparatus, and immediately ventured to obtain that apparatus which many of you have seen.

The refurbishing of equipment, I thought back in the old days in the service when I used to see World War II vintage airplanes fly, I said: Now, how can this be? And that comes from refurbishing the aircraft, rebuilding. I know this is not good news to vendors, but we have to be innovative in our own cities to attempt to curtail and cut down yet still do the job, and that's where it becomes most important.

So with that, with the program that we have in store for you which I believe is of an extremely informative nature, you will have the superintendent of the National Fire Academy in the morning followed by some notions and ideas and experiences with the contractual fire service, followed by security measures and various establishments, followed by a very important topic, the computerization of the fire service.

This incidentally is a full morning on Tuesday session. We have left sufficient time for the visitation of the vendors, of whom there are many, probably the greatest number we have had at a conference, but on that note I welcome you on behalf of Chief Cappelli who is a brother Fire Chief in the state of Rhode Island, and extend to you and hope that you will have the best of times both from a knowledge standpoint and certainly from a social standpoint. Thank you kindly.

(Applause)

CHIEF CAPPELLI: Very good, Mike.

Roll call of deceased members, Chief Arthur Gaudet.

CHIEF CAPPELLI: I'm sorry. Response from Jim Brennan. My glasses are dirty.

RESPONSE TO ADDRESS OF WELCOME

CHIEF BRENNAN: Thank you very much, Mr. President. Reverend clergy, Officers and members, Fire Chiefs and their lovely ladies, distributors and friends, I know the feeling Mike had when he found out that he was going to be the speaker. I knew that I was going to give a Response to the Address of Welcome by Chief Moise, but not knowing what he was going to say, it was rather difficult to respond to it, but I did put a few thoughts together last Friday and I gave them to my secretary and said: capital letters, double spaced. She did it and gave it to me. They are still home.

(Laughter)

But it is indeed a privilege and pleasure to be here and give the response to our 61st Annual Conference. As I was trying to put my thoughts together, I started doing a little bit of research and went to some of the old red books that we had, red books of yesteryear, started reading some of the programs that we had had, some of the speakers, some of the topics, and I found out that my thoughts and my memories were tied up more in the people who were present rather than the subject material. I came across names like Chief John Devine of Manchester, New Hampshire, and Chief Al Kimball of Hingham, Mass., Chief James Michael Fox of East Providence, Rhode Island, and it brought back a lot of good feelings and a lot of good things that had happened over the years.

These men did a great deal for the fire service and for our association, and in the next several days you're going to hear a lot of speakers on a lot of subjects. You are going to see a lot of apparatus, but I venture to say as the years go by that you'll forget many of the things that were said here and much of the apparatus, but the friendships that you make amongst the Fire Chiefs and the distributors are long and memorial, and as the years go by, you will cherish these friendships more than ever because they are the sustenance of life, the comradery that you make, the friendships that you make. So cherish these and God bless you all.

(Applause)

TEMPO- The glove made exclusively for firefighters

When you're fighting fires and your life's on the line you need equipment you can depend on — you need the Tempo Max firefighting glove.

Tempo Max is exactly what the name implies — maximum effectiveness and protection against the hazards of firefighting. In the heat or numbing cold, whether dry or soaking wet, you can depend on Tempo Max — the toughest glove for the toughest profession.

Tempo Glove Manufacturing has redefined the meaning of quality in the workmanship and material components of its firefighting gloves, with features the other guys can't touch.

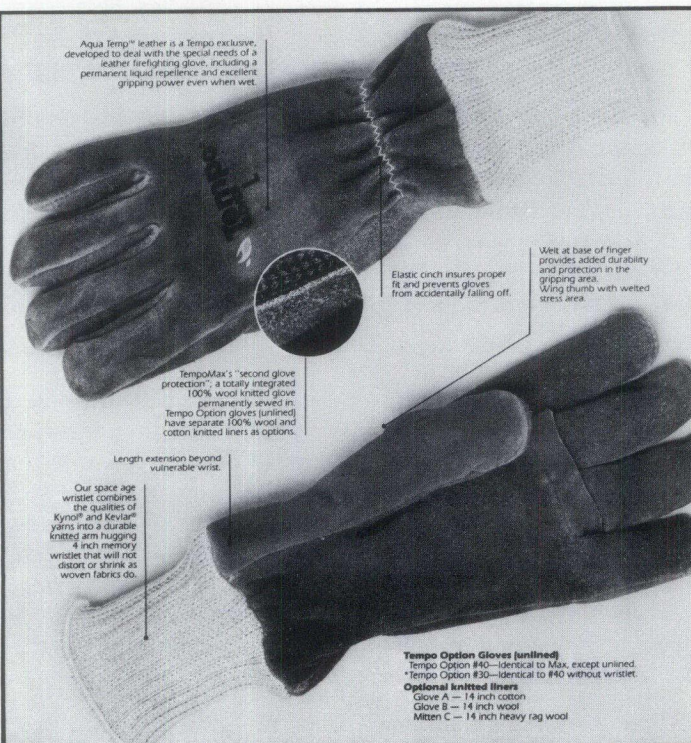

Tempo also manufactures the Option #40 which is identical to the Max except unlined, and the Option #30, an Option #40 without wristlet. Optional separate knitted liners are also available in 14" cotton (Glove A), 14" wool (Glove B), and 14" heavy rag wool (Mitten C).

All Tempo firefighting gloves exceed test standards of both Federal OSHA/NIOSH and revised CAL/OSHA, excepting Option #30 and "Mini Max" which have no wristlets. These gloves can exceed standards only when design of fire resistive coat provides extended protection to the wrist (consult respective standard for details).

Tempo gloves are manufactured and marketed by Tempo through its distributors throughout the United States and the world. All Tempo gloves are available in five sizes — Small (ladies), Medium, Large, Extra Large, and Jumbo. Mittens are available in Large and Extra Large only.

Tempo—the toughest glove for the toughest profession.

The next time you or your fire department purchase gloves, consider the incomparable total value of Tempo for quality, durability and reliability.

CHIEF CAPPELLI: Thank you, Arthur. I have one announcement for the Chiefs from Rhode Island. There will be a caucus in room 116 at 3 PM for the director.

We'll have the Memorial Address from the Reverend Father Hood.

MEMORIAL ADDRESS

REVEREND HOOD: I'm called Father many times. I have nine children.

Must be a sexy protestant.

Seriously, as we gather together on this 61st anniversary of the annual meeting of the Northeast Association, it certainly is very appropriate that we begin with a Memorial Service for our departed members. We engage in a Memorial Service because we share our trust in God's power to bring new life out of death as we celebrate the life of these persons who have gone before us and we remember them. Memory is one of the greatest gifts that God has given us. The mind is able to recall the past, persons, incidences, relationships, the happy times, the sad times, the sorrowful and dreadful days, the joyous and the loving events of life.

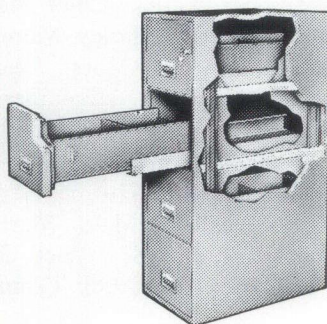

You know when we read biographies, it brings the life of the past to the present. This is true of life, the words, the deeds, the sacrifices of people that we have known. The great lessons of life, sometimes to our dismay, come to us from the past. Our past mistakes teach us so that our present and our future actions might be better and more fruitful, and so we do learn from remembering the past. It may be your mother's training, a father's example, a teacher's influence or some intensive experience of our own, but it has to be there or else the great achievement does not come, no matter how favorable the opportunity may be.

Only YOU can protect your business records.

If you don't have protection for your valuable records, your entire business could go up in smoke. Most businesses that suffer a major fire must close their doors forever.

Without documentation, insurance claims may be denied! Accounts receivable may be uncollectable. Contracts may not be honored. And that's just the beginning.

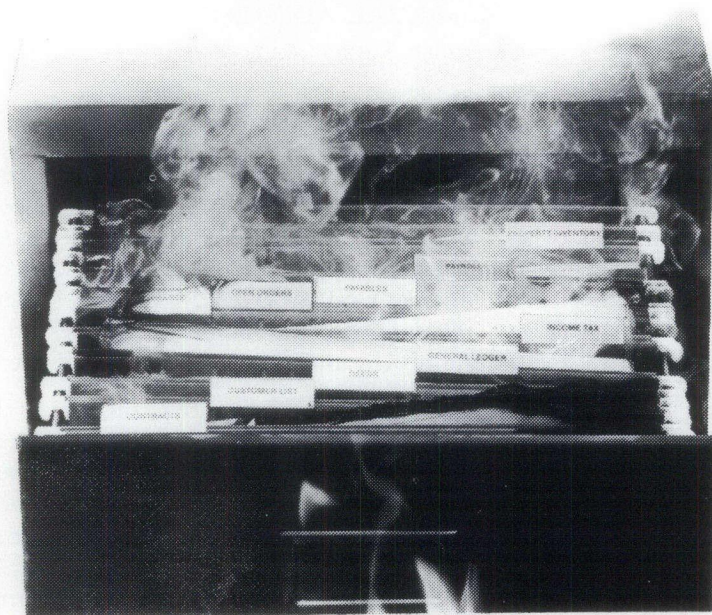

Don't get burned. Get certified fire protection for those vital records today! Isn't your business worth the small investment?

Many of you have seen, I am sure, a child on his father's shoulders watching a parade. You have all seen that I'm sure. But if you look closer, you will see a picture of every person including yourself. We stand on many shoulders. Frequently we hear people say that they are a self-made man. Only a fool can say that he is a self-made man. He has a very poor memory, for we stand on what has been given to us, passed on to us, and we are indebted to what has been given to us from the past; and so you will find yourselves tonight, this moment, remembering our fellow fire fighters, for we stand on their shoulders having received their gifts and their talents and their example.

And so our memory and the spirit of those who have gone before us challenges us to do better, and no greater tribute can we make tonight in this Memorial Service than to take up their good work, their challenge, and live their lives and take up their work and in spirit say: Do this in remembrance of me.

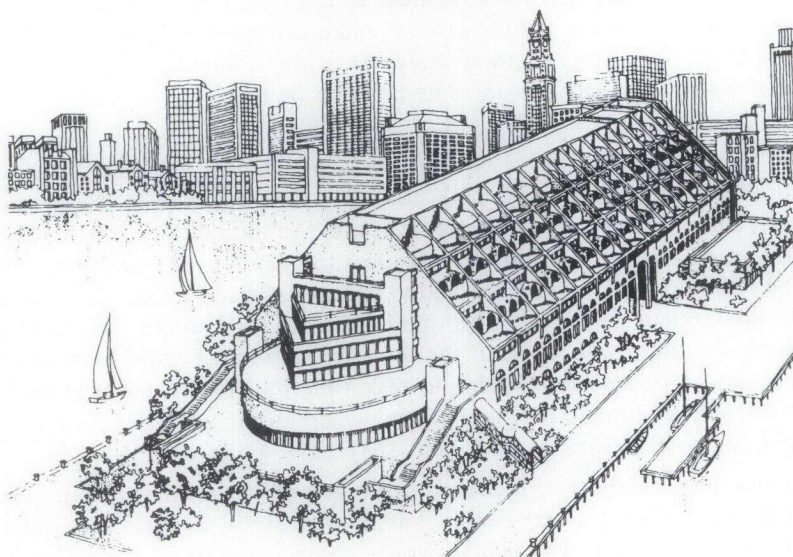

Certainly we say what we do with our lives is the result of a legacy, a legacy for the future, yes, for the future of those who will walk in our footsteps, and so we need to think, and we need to take time to think, for it is a source of power. We should take time to play, for it is the secret of perpetual youth. We should take time to rest, for it is the fountain of wisdom. We should take time to pray, for it is the greatest power on earth. We should take time to love and to be loved, for it is a God-given privilege. We should take time to be friendly, for that is the road to happiness. We should take time to laugh, for that is the music of the soul. We should take time to give, for it is too short a day to be selfish. We should take time for charity, for it is the key to heaven; for if we take time to do these things, we are doing what our comrades have done who have gone before us and what they have given us.

The Apostle Paul established a church in Rome and he left that group of people and they felt that separation very deeply; and he wrote to them some very significant words, words about separation. These words come to us from the Epistle to the Romans as he spoke about separation. All through our lives we are being separated from one another, even as through death we have been separated physically from our comrades and members of this association who have gone on before us. When we are an infant and mother leaves the room or leaves our side, we become apprehensive and we cry because we feel that separation. When Mom or Dad takes us by the hand and takes us to school for the first time and leaves us amid strange faces and strange surroundings, we cry because we are separated from Mom and Dad. When we get older, we travel and we are separated by time and space. We get married and we leave our home. It is no wonder that the bride's mother always cries, because she feels this separation so deeply. We are always being separated from one another in one way or another.

I remember one time when we were fighting a fire in Beverly that I went into the building with a fire fighter, and I turned around and fear gripped me because I didn't see this fire fighter who was with me. I was separated from him. Separation gives concern to us all through life, and when we die, when we are separated physically from this life, we cry because we feel deeply that separation; but the Apostle Paul tells us that we are never really separated from one another in God. He said: "Who shall separate us from the love of God? Shall tribulation or distress or persecution or famine or nakedness or peril or sword?"

No, in all of these things we are more than conqueror through him who loved us, for I am persuading that neither life nor death nor angels nor principalities nor things present nor things to come, height or depth, nor any other creature shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord; and it is in that separation, that spirit, that we remember those who have gone before us.

Life is like a ship on the high seas being tossed about by the wind and the wave, but that ship is held steady because it has an anchor, and that anchor is our faith and our hope in the Almighty. Eventually at the end of our voyage we are brought into a safe and a calm harbor because Jesus Christ has been the pilot of the ship of our lives. Alfred Lord Tennyson expresses it this way:

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning at the bar,
When I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;
For though from out our bourn of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

CHIEF CAPPELLI: Thank you, Reverend Hood. This concludes the Memorial Services. We thank you for attending and enjoy your stay. Thank you very much.

CHIEF CAPPELLI: Ladies and gentlemen, if you would all be seated now, we'll have our meal.

(Annual banquet served.)

MR. PETROSINELLI: Ladies and gentlemen, if I could have your attention, please? I would like to start the festivities. Can you all hear me out there?

A little louder, Jim?

CHIEF GROTE: Perfect.

MR. PETROSINELLI: At this time I would like to introduce the head table to you all. Starting from my right, Reverend Charles Hood; next is Second Vice, Chief Clinton Hughes and his wife Joan; next, ladies and gentlemen, our guest speaker for this evening Chief William P. Tocco and his wife Maria; next is our First Vice, Chief Charles Foss and his wife Helen; next Chief Angelo Cappelli and his wife Ann; next, on my left, Chief Richard Farrenkof and his wife Janet, our Host Chief in Hyannis here. Next is Chief Ernest Flanders and his wife Polly, Director and Reverend Stephen Foley.

At this time ladies and gentlemen, for you people who don't know who I am, my name is Captain Alfred Petrosinelli. I am the Fire Marshal for the town of Johnston and my lovely wife Nancy.

Right now I would like to introduce the past presidents. The first gentleman I have to mention I wish I could be the same as he is at his age, Chief Jim Grote. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Duckworth, Chief Carl Sawyer, Chief Earl Andrews and his wife. Chief Al Corvetti, Chief Edward Borrowic. Chief Mert Dyer, Chief James Ronan, Chief Harry Schneider. I must say we have got to represent the Secretary-Treasurer Arthur Gaudet. Where is Arthur? Oh, he is out for a minute.

Let's take notice and introduce our Sergeant-at-arms Chief Homer Dubois and his wife. Also the directors from Maine we have Robert Butters; from New Hampshire, Charles Hall; from Vermont, Weldon Mansfield; Massachusetts, James Fallen; from Rhode Island, my friend Robert Coutu, and from Connecticut, John Tweed.

Right now, ladies and gentlemen, I would like to call on Chief Richard Farrenkof who is the Host Chief in Hyannis who would like to say a welcome speech to you all.

CHIEF FARRENKOF: Thank you. Boy, this thing works the same as it did two years ago when I was up here.

I have quite a habit of when I'm getting ready to go out to leave my glasses on the windowsill in the bathroom, so I did that tonight, and my wife usually shuts the light off because I leave it on, so on the way out tonight with my jacket and already to go, she shut the light off and said you know, you forgot your glasses. You'll never be able to make your speech tonight. That's all right. I'll get up and say I forgot my glasses, no speech. They'll give a big sigh of relief and say: Thank God.

WELLESLEY OFFICE PARK ASSOCIATES

Mr. President, officers, members of the Board of Directors, Fire Chiefs, wives and guests, welcome to our Annual Banquet. As Host Chief, it has been my pleasure to serve you at this 61st Conference. I have endeavored to make your stay here in Hyannis a pleasant one and hope everyone had a good time. I extend to you my wishes for a safe trip home. May fiscal '83 and '84 be successful and prosperous. I am looking forward to seeing you again at the 62nd Annual Conference here at Dunfey's in Hyannis in 1984. Have an enjoyable evening and thank you.

MR. PETROSINELLI: Thank you, Chief.

Ladies and gentlemen, at this time we have a representative from the Muscular Dystrophy Association. She would like to present a plaque to the NEFCA. Her name is Ellen Tuttle. Ellen. You want to step forward?

MS. TUTTLE: When they told me I was coming here tonight, they said this would be a small room with just a few people. I can't wait to get back to the office tomorrow.

As was said, my name is Ellen Tuttle and I am the Southern Massachusetts representative for the Muscular Dystrophy Association, and I would like to thank you all for letting us be here tonight on behalf of the Association in Region One, which is all of New England.

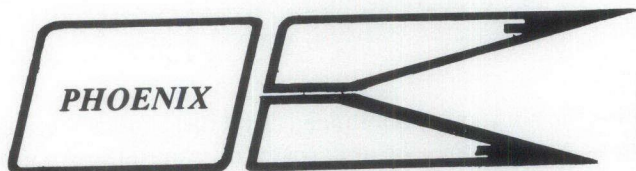

What can I say about the fire fighters? You have been with us for 31 years. That in itself is an achievement, not to mention the money you have raised for us over the years.

In 1981 over 320 thousand dollars was raised and 1982 the figures exceeded that. The funds raised, as I'm sure you all know, provide the much needed medical aid and services to our clients with dystrophy and muscle destroying diseases. Because of you and your departments, we are able to provide wheelchairs, which are three thousand dollars apiece now, to the children and adults with dystrophy who need that in order to normalize their lives. We are able to continue our research programs with grants at such outstanding medical institutions as Harvard Medical School, MIT, Tufts, Mass. General.

I could go on and on. Also the clinics that are funded. And these funds are raised through a variety of events, whether they be toll roads or canisters or softball tournaments, you name it, and because of you and your efforts, we at MDA are able to do our job to provide medical aid and services to clients with muscular dystrophy and to continue our world wide search for the cure. So therefore, before the band leaves, I would like to present to Chief Cappelli on behalf of the Muscular Dystrophy Association, the New England Chapter, this plaque: Presented to the New England Division of the International Association of Fire Chiefs with deepest gratitude from the New England Chapter of the Muscular Dystrophy Association, this day, June 28, 1983. Thank you all for caring.

MS. TUTTLE: Thank you.

MR. PETROSINELLI: Thank you, Ellen.

Ladies and gentlemen, at this time I would like to call on our guest speaker. First I'd like to say a few things about him. Talk a little louder the chap says. Chief, if I get any closer to this mike, I'll be eating it.

First thing before I talk about the guest speaker, I want to say one thing. I'm looking at all the faces out here this evening, and after the party last night, I am surprised to see this many here. I heard it was a heck of a time. I was there for a little while, but I couldn't last too long. I had to get back, but some of the faces I see around here, I don't know if you are here in body or spirit or just what it is. You stood up pretty good anyway. I can say that.

Our speaker, guest speaker for this evening, is Chief William P. Tocco, Junior, Chief of the town of Johnston in the capacity as Chief of Police. Chief Tocco entered the realm of police in 1952 where he served as the assistant detective commander. He is a graduate of the FBI Academy, was President of the Rhode Island Police Chiefs and a member and coordinator of many, many committees. I really have so much to say about him I could be up here a while too. He is quite a guy. We all get along good, very good in our town. We work very close. He works very close with my Chief and my department and my division, and we really work close.

At this time, ladies and gentlemen, it gives me great pleasure to introduce to you Chief William P. Tocco, Junior.

(Applause)

CHIEF TOCCO: Thank you very much, Captain Petrosinelli. Chief Cappelli, his lovely wife Ann, our incoming chief, the new President Chief Foss, Father Foley, Reverend Hood, other distinguished guests at the head table, ladies and gentlemen. It's got to be the strangest thing in the world to have a Police Chief talking to several hundred Fire Chiefs. You probably wonder why I'm here. Is there anybody else that can put up with Chief Cappelli other than myself?

You know, I was in the VIP room and I met Chief Grote, and he said: Chief, do you have any idea how old I am? I said: You're about 62. He turned out to be 92. I don't know of a chief in all of New England or the United States, a Police Chief who is alive at 92. There has got to be something good about being a Fire Chief, so I decided that after this conference here, I am going back to see Mayor Russo, and I plan on switching jobs with Ace Cappelli. I want to live to be 92.

With all seriousness, I had thought what I'd speak to you people about this evening and I thought about talking about the death penalty. I said: No, they won't be interested in that. I thought about talking about standards and goals which many of your agencies are looking towards now with your fire science academy. I said: They're not going to be interested in that. I thought about talking about what's coming down the road or may come down the road, that's the coordination of fire and police services. It is being talked about. I understand you people had a workshop yesterday. It happens to be that I chair the Commission on Police Officer Standards and Training in Rhode Island, and we supervise the training of all police officers in the state of Rhode Island outside of the Providence Police Department and the State Police, and it has been an issue for discussion whether it is going to happen. I really don't know.

I really believe at this time that most of the Fire Chiefs would feel that they want the autonomy of being a Fire Chief, training their personnel the way they want to train them, handle them the way they want to handle them, and be a Fire Chief and not a Police and a Fire Chief; and I think to be honest with you, I'm under the same impression. I believe that although we are all dedicated to public safety, I believe that we should be specialists in our fields, and I think that it will be talked about, but I really don't see it coming down the road where it is coming to be a reality.

Another thing I wanted to talk to you about is something that some of the chiefs noticed in the VIP room, and we talked about it, and it is the fact that Chief Cappelli and I work very closely. I don't think there is any greater degree of strength in a community than when a Police and a Fire Chief can work together, respect one another, and be good friends, because I think the basis of any community, the foundation of any good community today is public safety, and that's police and fire and that's what a community is judged upon.

You drive through a community and you go by a police officer standing there and you look at that individual and that's how you judge the town. And when you go by the fire station, you see personnel there and equipment, and that's how you judge a fire department; and I think as Chiefs we are very critical of what we see. We are not too constructive. We kind of say, you know, our department doesn't do that. Our department does it this way. We have got a good department and then if you like what you see, you say: This has got to be a good city or a good town.

I have had the fortune of being a friend of Chief Cappelli for the last 12 years. There was a political change in our town and we both came to our positions. We're part of a political process, the American democracy, and together we established a bond, and we said that we would try to make Johnston the best town in the United States. I think as chiefs we all dedicate ourselves to that. That's something that we hope that we'll see before we leave our positions.

Well, I want to tell you something. We have had war in Johnston. We have had war with the unions, and I'm proud to report that Chief Cappelli's batting average is zero for winning any arbitration or any Superior Court action, and I want you to know that Chief Tocco, who is talking to you, his average is zero. We have not won between the both of us one arbitration or we have not won an appeal to a Superior Court on any case that we have brought against our personnel, and the cases the personnel have brought against us, they have been very successful.

Well, how do you survive? I call Chief Cappelli and I say: Ace, have you got a few minutes? I'll be down to talk to you. Or he will call me and say: Bill, you got a few minutes? I want to come up and talk to you. And we talk about where we are and where we're going in the area of public safety. We know that unions are strong. We know that unions are not always in the best interests of our communities. We know there are individuals who are at the leadership of the unions and their whole attempt is to erode the integrity of our departments. It is also to put them on the same level as the Chief of Police or a Fire Chief.

Well, Ace and I have had a bond that no matter what happens, we are committed to the people in our town. We share our equipment. I have been very generous. I have given him about six automobiles.

(Laughter)

They are secondhand cars, but I finally got a new one a couple of years ago, but Captain Petrosinelli comes up and looks at the fleet, sees what we have, and then he goes to his Chief and I get a call. Gee, you know you have that car hanging around. It hasn't been used in two days. Can we have it?

Well, Ace and the Captain could always have whatever we have. We go down and we pick up surplus equipment and we have exchanged it. We have shared our printing press for the printing of some equipment, some paraphernalia. We have pooled our resources. We have a plan like all of you people in case of a catastrophe, and this is important because I realize that the Fire Department is the greatest asset the Police Department has. When you can develop a personal relationship and a professional relationship with the Fire Chief as I have, then I consider myself a very successful Chief. That's very important to me. I think that what it becomes is a partnership, a partnership and a reality that we must work together.

(Applause)

Well, what I really want to say is this. First of all I'd like to thank you very much, Chief Cappelli. I thank you very much for being invited here to speak for you and to speak to this very distinguished organization. I notice that you people are like us. We can't call them conventions any more. We have to call them conferences. But it is really a sincere blessing that God has bestowed upon us when we can all be here with one another, we can celebrate our friendship, we can celebrate the fact that we are professional people, that we are dedicated to the communities, the cities and the towns for which we represent, and I think the cities and towns are very fortunate to have you people as their Fire Chiefs.

To those Fire Chiefs who have been retired, I salute you. You stand as very proud individuals, gentlemen of great integrity. To the incoming officers, I wish you the best of luck this year. To the outgoing officers and especially to my good friend Chief Ace Cappelli, you did a super job. Your peers speak highly of you and there is no greater respect, there is no greater compliment that one can receive than to be admired and to be respected by his peers.

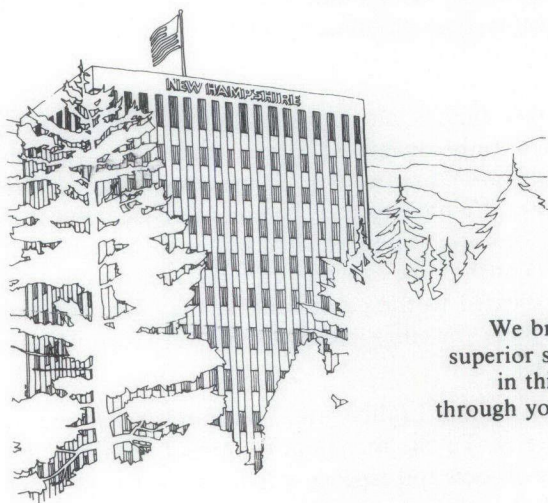

Ladies and gentlemen, I thank you very much and good night.

MR. PETROSINELLI: Thank you, Chief Tocco.

Ladies and gentlemen, this afternoon my Chief Cappelli said to me. He said: Come on, Al, we're going up to room 436, he said, Freddy and Tony are there, and we are just going to go up for a few minutes; and he said: tonight I'm going to speak very little, very short. I don't want to speak. That's it. Thirty second speech. Well, believe me, if you were up at that room this afternoon, he talked for five hours. My God, we never got out of there. So I hope he talks a little longer than thirty seconds. At this time, ladies and gentlemen, I would like to call on my boss and my close friend Chief Angelo Cappelli.

(Applause and standing ovation)

CHIEF CAPPELLI: Thank you, Al. My close friend Father Foley, Reverend Hood, guests at the head table, guests, friends, ladies and gentlemen. I never met so many wonderful people in all my life. In the past year we tried out best, and my interest is like all the board of directors, the committees that worked real hard. They did a wonderful job. We get a gripe here and there, but naturally you can't satisfy everybody. I would like to praise, No. 1, from my heart is Arthur Gaudet.

(Applause)

I can't leave Homer out. He has been running for four days here, and that's the truth, and I never met a wonderful bunch, and I have belonged to the association for 25 years. I enjoyed the presidency and I'll be here next year with all you wonderful people. My interest is like Arthur's, the Board of Directors, the New England Association of Fire Chiefs, and I will assist all I can. I'm not saying that I performed miracles when I was president. I did rely on Arthur and we have a big telephone bill between Amesbury and Johnston, but he had a tough battle, and Homer was here this afternoon with Harry Schneider. We were up here trying to set up the tables to satisfy everybody. Now, you know you can't satisfy everybody but that's the way it goes.

Last night we had the time, half the place was empty, so I hope to see you all next year. As far as Chief Tocco is concerned, that's the longest speech he ever made, but he is a close friend. We do work closely together and I'm hoarse in the throat not because I have been talking.

(Laughter)

I went to New York last week with that Connecticut gang, and boy you think they are crazy in Rhode Island? They are in Connecticut. I love you all, and I hope we'll all be together next year, and thank you very much from the bottom of my heart.

(Applause)

MR. PETROSINELLI: Thank you, Chief. Now, Chief Cappelli, if you would come up, we would like to install the new president coming in.

Chief Foss.

Before I go any further with this, I would like to thank all the members for the pleasure of being elected your president. I think I have one of the few honors maybe of being the second member of my family to be president of this association and I appreciate it very much. Thank you.

(Applause)

MR. PETROSINELLI: Thank you, Chief Foss.

Ladies and gentlemen, at this time we are going to have a benediction by Reverend Charles Hood, and we would like you all to stay after. We have some raffles and we have some gifts to give, but first, right now I would like the benediction by Reverend Charles Hood.

(Assembly stood.)

REVEREND HOOD: Almighty and eternal God, we thank you for all of the blessings and all the experiences that bring us together. We thank you for this association, and now as we convene this meeting, we ask your blessing upon us, and now unto him who is able to keep you from falling and to present you faultless before the only wise God, our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever more. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

MR. PETROSINELLI: Thank you, Reverend.

Ladies and gentlemen, Chief Foss has some presentations he would like to present here.

CHIEF FOSS: Ladies and gentlemen, members of the head table, we are recognizing five of our distributors who have supported the organization for 50 years. The plaque reads: Presented to -- we have five different ones. This one is presented to the American Fire Equipment Company, Inc. in appreciation of your fifty years of continuous support in the Annual Report of the New England Association of Fire Chiefs. It is dated this date. I have five of them. I'll read their names off, if the people would come up, I would love to present them.

(Plaques presented to five sponsors.)

(Applause)

(Raffle drawing was held and gifts were distributed.)

(Donated prizes awarded.)

CHIEF FOSS: Right now I would like to have the Chief from Hyannis say a few words about it.

CHIEF FARRENKOF: Ladies and gentlemen, the businesses are not here, but I am very remiss in not taking the names down of the businesses that donated these 14 gifts that we have for you, so I apologize to the businesses and I certainly will send them a letter extending my apologies to them that I did not have their names here, but they are 14 gifts that were donated by the merchants of Hyannis. Thank you.

CHIEF CREIGHTON: I would like to thank Chief Farrenkof of the Hyannis Fire Department who has been very helpful to all of us on the duties, and I as Chairman of the Exhibits Committee for all of his help and guidance, and hopefully he will be around here to help us again. Have a good time tonight dancing.

MR. PETROSINELLI: One other thing, I would like to thank Chief Cappelli for asking me to be Master of Ceremonies. I really enjoyed it and was honored to be the Master of Ceremonies tonight. Don't forget, stick around. We have a nice band, beautiful dancing. Thank you all for attending and good night.

ANNUAL MEETING

Wednesday, June 29, 1983 - 10 AM

CHIEF FOSS: It is now ten o'clock or one minute past. We'll call the meeting to order, and Chief Grote, are you here? Would you give us the invocation this morning, sir? Please rise.

CHIEF GROTE: In the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Oh, Lord we ask you to protect and to guide us until we meet again and let us have peace on earth and goodwill towards men. Thank thee for protecting us at this conference, protect and guide us back to our dear ones, until we meet again. And now with a little prayer we start off.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY

CHIEF GAUDET: To the Officers and Members of the New England Association of Fire Chiefs, Inc., I herewith submit the Annual Report of the Secretary for the year ending May 31, 1983.

Your Officers and Committees held two meetings since our last Conference. The two meetings were held on October 21, 1982, and May 12, 1983, at the Providence Marriott Inn, Providence, Rhode Island. Plans for our 61st Annual Conference were discussed and formulated.

During the year, all Association business was handled promptly by President Angelo Cappelli and your secretary. A full and complete report of the meetings will appear in the 1983 Book of Proceedings of the Association, commonly referred to as "The Red Book".

Your Secretary, with the help of the Officers and Directors, answered all calls for sick and departed members of the Association when notified. Your Officers also presented the Association at several testimonials for retiring members and presented plaques and Honorary Life Memberships to them.

Please do not hesitate to call upon your State Director or any Officer of the Association in any matter in which we may assist you. I would urge all to notify your State Director or the Secretary at once in the case of death or illness of a member.

I would like to add one comment before I go through the expenditures. You see the raffle. The reason why the raffle shows this amount at this time, we are showing receipts from the last conference, and under the new method this year of the Secretary mailing out the books, that's why you show two incomes there. You show the income we received since March plus what we received from last year's conference. That's why that figure is up there.

REPORT OF THE RESERVATION COMMITTEE

CHIEF BOROWIEC: Reservation Committee Report for 1983. Mr. President and members of the New England Association of Fire Chiefs, Inc.

Once again it is a privilege for me to serve as Chairman of the Reservations Committee and hereby respectfully submit the report for the 61st Annual Conference at Dunfey's Hyannis Hotel, Hyannis, Massachusetts.

On March 14, 1983 over 1400 reservation forms were mailed to members and exhibitors by our Secretary-Treasurer. The deadline for room reservations was June 3rd, however, at my request, the management extended the deadline to June 11, because reservation forms were slow in coming in. The management reserved a block of 150 rooms and 7 parlors for our Conference.

On May 16, 55 double rooms and 7 parlors were reserved. On June 6, 90 rooms and 7 parlors were reserved. On June 17, 120 rooms and 7 parlors were reserved.

With only the seven parlors (hospitality rooms) in the hotel, the management consented to rearrange the furniture in some adjoining rooms into suites and thereby accommodating these people.

On Sunday, June 26, 230 persons were checked into the hotel. On Monday, June 27th, 233 persons were checked into the hotel. On Tuesday, June 28, 199 persons were checked into the hotel.

Hopefully the 1984 Conference will be a bigger success. Since we in New England are experiencing a great transition of Fire Chiefs, it is our sincere wish the Fire Chiefs will invite a new chief to participate in future Conferences.

REPORT OF THE EXHIBIT COMMITTEE

CHIEF CREIGHTON: This year we had a total of 125 exhibitors. That's 45 more than last year, which is a considerable increase. Hopefully we'll even have some more next year. There were 70 inside booths and 55 pieces of apparatus out in the parking lot with four no shows. A full report will be made at a later date because I have to do some bookkeeping, but I want to thank particularly Chief Lydon and Chief McCabe and in particular Chief ? from Nahant who sets up the entire outside which is a hell of a lot of work. Thank you very much.

CHIEF FOSS: You have heard the report, gentlemen. What is your pleasure?

Entertainment.

REPORT OF THE ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE

CHIEF MOISE: I inherited the Entertainment Committee apparently because of the Presidency of Chief Cappelli, but I would like to say that there was one little error in the whole program and that was that we did not publicize the entertainment as well as we should have. We put one little picture out on the wall out here, but I think that's important because we had I think from judging from the comments of most people, a very fine entertainer; so in the future if we do go to that type of entertainment or entertainment generally, as far as a guest, that we publicize it to the hilt so that all people can participate. I think it is pretty disheartening to have an expensive entertainer and have a few people to hear him; but at any rate I have not received the bill for either the band or the entertainer, but I know that it will be in the range of probably just under two thousand dollars, which is not too bad for the time and the music and the entertainment we had.

CHIEF FOSS: You have heard the report, gentlemen. What is your pleasure?

CHIEF TWEED: Chief John Tweed, Branford, Connecticut. Move it be accepted.

CHIEF COUTU: Chief Coutu, Central Falls, Rhode Island, second.

NOBODY'S PERFECT.

When you make millions and millions of pairs of the world's finest athletic shoes, as we do at Converse, you're bound to make a few boo boo's. A missed stitch here. A little skuff mark there. A tiny dab of glue that our quality inspectors get sticky about.

Nothing that in any way affects the performance of our shoes (in fact, most of the blemishes are so slight you're going to have to look closely just find them). But standards are standards.

So, regretfully, every month we ship cases and cases of almost perfectly good basketball, football, tennis, and running shoes to our Converse Factory Outlets and sell them at tremendous savings. All because, as good as we are at making athletic shoes, we're still not perfect. Aren't you glad?

REPORT OF THE REGISTRATION COMMITTEE

CHIEF BRENNAN: Thank you President Charley. Reporting for the Registration Committee, on Sunday, June 26, 1983 we registered 330 people. On Monday, June 27, we registered 129 people and on Tuesday, June 28, we registered 22 people, for a total of 481. 213 of these were Chiefs, 52 were retired Chiefs, 34 were associate members and 182 were female guests for a total of 481. I turned over to Secretary-Treasurer Arthur Gaudet $4810. We also reported 125 exhibitors for a grand total of 606 attendees. This exceeds last year's conference by 180 which is indicative of just where we're going the last couple of years. We are going up, which is good. I would like to express my sincere thanks to all those committee members and their lovely wives who spent so much time at the front desk.

Respectfully submitted,

I did receive some reports from individuals, and as a matter of fact some of the people brought me copies of the report. I indicated in there also that we were going to have the largest exhibit that we have had probably in the history of the organization, but I think it is starting to bear some fruit. We have a little problem with the major newspapers in the major cities. I don't know whether they are reluctant to do anything about it. We have more luck with the smaller papers, but we're still trying and I think the word is getting out. Thank you.

CHIEF FOSS: You heard the report from the Publicity Committee, gentlemen. What is your pleasure?

CHIEF FREIMUTH: Charles Freimuth, I move the report be accepted.

CHIEF FOSS: Have a second on that?

CHIEF HOPKINS: Chief Edward Hopkins, Manchester, second it.

REPORT OF THE RAFFLE COMMITTEE

CHIEF McCABE: I think I better take my hat off. Otherwise Jigsy will be giving me a few comments. However, before I give the report, I'd like to make a few comments. First of all I'd like to thank all the members of the Association who when they receive their raffle tickets promptly returned them to our Secretary because that contributed much to the success of this raffle for this year.

I also wanted to thank the Directors who worked for practically two and a half days here at the convention selling the raffle tickets which also contributed, and when you hear the report, you'll find out we had a very, very successful year; and also like to congratulate Secretary Gaudet on the innovative idea of mailing the tickets with the regular mailing of the Association, other information, which resulted in a considerable reduction in the operating cost of the raffle. Let me give you the report and you'll find out we did very, very well.

Referring to my previous comment on the returns prior to the conference from the mailing, we had $1314 returned by the various Directors. Before the conference started we had $144; and sold at the conference, we sold 206 tickets on Sunday, 100 tickets on Monday, 187 tickets on Tuesday for a total ticket sales at the conference of 493 with a gross income of $1950.

The expenses associated with the raffle were 175 for prizes, $98 for printing and $5.68 for the special mailing to the Directors which gave us a total expense of $278.68 with a gross profit for the raffle for this year of $1,672.32.

Respectfully submitted,
Leo McCabe, Raffle Coordinator for Secretary Gaudet

CHIEF FOSS: Good report on the Raffle Committee. What is your pleasure on this, gentlemen? Somebody make a motion?

CHIEF COUTU: Chief Coutu, Central Falls, Rhode Island, make a motion it be accepted.

CHIEF FOSS: Second?

CHIEF LEMM: Chief Harry Lemm, second.

CHIEF FOSS: You have heard the motion, gentlemen. All those in favor?

(Chorus of ayes)

CHIEF FOSS: Anybody opposed?

(Silence)

CHIEF FOSS: If not, I declare it a vote.

Next thing on the program is setting the salary for the Secretary for next year.

CHIEF CARLE: Mr. President, it gives me pleasure to move that the salary of the Secretary be set at two thousand dollars for the ensuing year. As you know, you have heard all the reports from the various committees and all the hard work he has done and a slight increase is not that great, but it is a little extra token to show we do appreciate what he has done for us.

CHIEF BRENNAN: Chief Brennan from Salem. I would like to second that motion.

CHIEF FOSS: Any discussion on the motion before we vote on it? If not, you have heard the motion. All those in favor say aye.

(Chorus of ayes)

CHIEF FOSS: Anybody oppose it?

(Silence)

CHIEF FOSS: Declare it a vote.

Setting the salary for the Treasurer.

CHIEF CARLE: So move again, Mr. President, for the same reasons previously mentioned.

CHIEF BRENNAN: Chief Brennan from Salem, ditto, ditto, ditto.

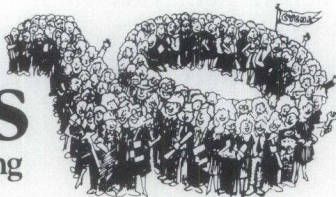

CHIEF FOSS: You heard the motion, gentlemen. Anybody have any arguments for or against? If not we'll have a vote on it. All those in favor?

CHIEF FOSS: Declare it a vote.

Announcement of 1986 Conference Site. Voted on, I think we are going to Providence.

CHIEF GAUDET: I think everybody is aware by now that the 1986 conference will be held at the Providence Marriott Inn. That is the same hotel in which the 1982 conference was held. The first vote that was taken, a 51 percent majority was not received when different hotels were presented for consideration. On the second vote the runoff between Dunfey's Hyannis and the Marriott, the Marriott I believe received 80 votes, and I think Dunfey's Hyannis received 51 votes, so that's where the 1986 conference will be held.

CHIEF FOSS: Any old business?

No old business. If not, we go on to new business.

NEW BUSINESS

CHIEF GAUDET: Gentlemen, I have got a suggestion that I brought up to the Board of Directors at our May meeting, and I would like to bring it up this morning for your thoughts and consideration; and in order to do this, talking to our parliamentarian Mert Dyer, it would take a Bylaw change.

As you well know, each and every year through the Bylaw setup that the conference is voted on by the membership, which I think is a democratic way to go; but as we negotiate with these hotels, once they hear our decision that the membership has decided to go here or there, the negotiating process is kind of lost, and I'll tell you the simple reason why. That once this is established, nobody on the Board of Directors, the Secretary or anybody else really can sit down to be hard nosed with them, and that's what it is all about, to sit down with these people and say: What can you give us and what our needs are and what is the best deal we can make for the Association.

And just for an example was that when I received from corporate headquarters a call probably four weeks ago from the Parker House in Boston from Marie Stack, who is head of sales for the Dunfey Corporation, she said that she was putting together the 1986 proposal, and I related to her that I was very, very disappointed on the number of rooms that had been reserved at Dunfey's this year, and I felt that for a successful conference, it is important that the membership stay in the hotel in which the conference is held. I think that is what makes a successful conference. And from the information I had at that particular time, I was really disturbed because I felt that I had known a lot of other chiefs had made arrangements, simply economics, in other facilities which Hyannis has to offer. But I think that this leads to kind of separation of really what the conference is for. It is for everybody to get together and to participate not only in the events of every day but the social part of it and everything else.

I think that's what makes a successful conference, and I said to her that the membership was very disappointed on the rate we had for 1983. I said I was disappointed. I said: I have talked with some professional people who do this nationwide, they feel that the rate could have been a much better rate, that they weren't really being competitive. She was somewhat disturbed. In fact she was so disturbed, she said: I will get back to you shortly; and I felt shortly, within a couple of days. I received a call within ten minutes from the time I talked to her originally back to my office. And she says: We have re-evaluated what you had told me previously, a few minutes ago on the phone, and we are going to reduce the 1984 rates by $4.50 per day double occupancy and $6 per day for a single.

I know it is not considerable, but right then and there it showed to me that they could have done better for 1983 and they didn't; and I think that now they become complacent that the membership has voted, which I think I have no problems with that, but I think my own personal opinion is that a Bylaw, consideration of a Bylaw change, and that the responsibility be given to the Board of Directors and that we now become a negotiating team for whoever it may be to go in and say for 1986 or whatever, what can you do for us? What is the best deal? What is the most advantageous place for the Association to hold its conference where we can get exhibit space and all the particulars in which we need to serve in the best interests of the Association; and I'm only putting this out there, this is my own personal feelings after dealing with these hotels for the last three years that I think that we have to definitely look at making a change and see if we can do something better for the Association. This is my thoughts on that, gentlemen, and I am only putting it out for discussion.

CHIEF FOSS: We have discussion on this?

CHIEF TWEED: Chief John Tweed, Branford, Connecticut, gentlemen, at our caucus meeting this was brought up and it was the unanimous opinion of the Connecticut group that a step be made as Arthur has presented it to give it to the Board of Directors. Now, there is a good many of us here that would have liked to have stayed here, but they don't want to be tied into a package. They bring their family because they want to travel, want to go see different things. They are willing to eat breakfast here, but they want their lunch and dinner free and would be willing to doing a package deal like a banquet ticket, and I think we have outgrown picking a site, and then they have the site. I think we have to reverse it. You people elect us. It is your choice to put us in, and I think you have to have the confidence in the Board of Directors and the Presidents to let them make a decision and pick this site.

I think it will be better for all of us. We are in a money pinch and these people aren't doing what they did in business a few years ago, and I know from experience that there are professionals in this business that put these things together, and they get some terrific packages, and I think this ought to be returned to the Board of Directors and your President to handle this type of a situation. Thank you.

CHIEF FOSS: Mert, could you give a little information on whether a vote could be taken this morning or whether it is going to be delayed a year or two years down the road?

CHIEF DYER: Merton Dyer, Peterboro. I think that the appropriate thing now is to have some motion before the floor before the discussion goes on too much further. Arthur has presented an idea. A Bylaw change would be required. It cannot be taken this morning. It requires prior notice. It can be presented at next year's conference and it can be presented in such a way that it would take effect immediately, and whatever the Bylaw change said, you could then implement next year on the 1987 conference; but I think right now there should be a motion made so that we have some direction to discuss it and somewhere to go. I think Mike Moise had a motion.

CHIEF McCABE: In our Massachusetts caucus we discussed the various ramifications and there is many other things that should be considered in addition to the cost element. I think there was some discussion whether or not we should go back to a four-day conference. I think the idea that John put forward is that what should the whole package be? Do we need all the meals tied in? Can we give ourselves more flexibility? As a result of that, I put together a motion which I would like to submit, if I could. I would like to make a motion that the President appoint a Subcommittee of Directors to investigate and develop a position paper to develop the various aspects of our Annual Conference to determine how the Association can best serve the needs of its members and the goals and objectives of the Association, the said Committee to submit their recommendations to the full Board at the Directors' meeting in October, and the full Board make the arrangements for Bylaw amendments as needed at our Conference in 1984.

CHIEF FALLON: Chief Fallon, Brookline, I second that motion.

CHIEF FOSS: You heard the motion, gentlemen, any more discussion on this before we take a vote on it?

CHIEF DYER: Mr. President, I think the motion is fine and if we are in a discussion period, I think this is the period where some people that have ideas that might be passed on to the Board of Directors for their consideration should make them, and I have a couple of ideas.

I still feel that the membership should have some choice or some activity in selecting the site. It is possible that the top two sites, the two sites receiving the two most number of votes will be the two that the Directors will consider to negotiate with. This gives the membership an opportunity to still express their view of where they might like to go.

Another thing might be considered, this conference has always been held at this time, with the exception of about 1940 when it was held in August in connection with the International. If it was held possibly the early part of June we might get off season rates. There are a couple of thoughts that I had that might be of interest to the Directors.

CHIEF FOSS: Mike.

CHIEF MOISE: Mr. President, one of the things that I think in my opinion should positively be considered in this resolution, or I will make a separate resolution for it is this, as we have a Committee formed by this motion that this Committee also positively study the feasibility of going back to a four-day conference.

Now my reasons for this are a couple fold. No. 1, I have been Program Chairman for some time. I have been on the Program Committee. It is pretty damn difficult to squash into a day and a half actually a program that's worthwhile. This is the reason, one of the prime reasons we are coming to this conference, to learn and to get an exchange of ideas. That's one reason.

Secondly, the other part of it is the fact that I think as you look around, and this particular conference there are many people out there at other hotels, and the reason very basically, is very aptly put, is economics. I feel if we can eliminate all of the meals except the banquet in the package, most people I think have no qualm about going in to get a hotdog out here or whatever it may be and also they have some qualm about rushing to get this meal and rushing to get that and rushing to get here.

So in all of this say No. 1, we extend this thing for four days, at least the feasibility of extending it for four days. There may be some reasons that I don't see right now, but the feasibility of extending it to a four-day conference; and secondly, it be, I don't know what kind of a package, your meals or whatever the hell it is, but a package that does not include the meals. The meals I believe are extremely costly and the cost of those meals will take care of the day following, the fourth day that we're looking for.

With that I will leave that, provided that can be included in this motion. If not, I will make a separate motion related to the four-day plan.

CHIEF FOSS: I believe if we go according to parliamentary law that would have to be an amendment to Leo's motion.

CHIEF MOISE: I think he was very general. I am clarifying a particular motion.

CHIEF FOSS: His motion was made and seconded, am I right, Mert? Leo's motion was made and seconded, anything now would have to be an amendment to Leo's motion?

CHIEF DYER: I would have to read Leo's to see if it is broad enough to see if it would include what Mike says.

CHIEF MOISE: The point I am making, Mr. President. His motion was general. It did not specifically mention an idea as I mentioned and all I am saying is that be included. If it requires an amendment, then so be it.

CHIEF GAUDET: Let me say now that I think that the present procedure no way does the Bylaw say that the package has to include meals. I think that if it was the consensus of the membership that they would rather go without meals and just the banquet, then that this could be negotiated. I think it is entirely up to the membership. If they want to try this next year, I'd be more than happy to negotiate the same length of time as far as the conference is concerned, but go without the meals and the banquet only if this is the consensus. I would be more than happy to negotiate that.

My thoughts on this, I agree with some of the thoughts that Mike had. I would personally like to see the breakfast stay into the package deal because there are a lot of workers, and you don't want to be running downtown or if we're in Providence you have to go downtown or pay for it. Sometimes the hotel is an expensive thing. Personally I'd like to see the meals eliminated except the banquet, but keep the breakfast.

As far as going to a four day, when Mike approached me on this, I canvassed the exhibitors, and I have to say it is about a split difference on all the exhibitors. Some didn't care, others felt that a day and a half exposure was enough. The exhibitors that have a great amount of equipment to set up, and there was quite a few of them out there, they said they would like another day because they do an awful lot of work setting up their booth and Sunday afternoon is mostly a setup day. Monday is the biggest day that they have the exposure and Tuesday morning also and of course you notice, Tuesday afternoon everybody starts bailing out of here, and that's the way it has been. So the exhibitors are on the fence as to whether they want to go a four-day deal here.

The other thing that I would like the directors or whoever is going to be eventually considering this issue, I don't think voting for the conference site the way it is done now is right because you go down there and they list five hotels or some hotel sends in a proposal. Nobody has gone to the hotel to know what the hell the space is. You have to have exhibit space and we're going to lose our shirts at the Marriott. I can only get about 40 booths in there and they have to be out of there for the banquet. I know it is a nice hotel for a social, but it is lousy for exhibitors, so you have got to have people that investigate the hotels and make sure that we can hold a conference the way we are used to holding it; and your exhibits are your money makers, along with the other things, but they are the money makers, and everything we made this year which is going to be a good thing, we are going to lose it in Providence. We are going to spend it. That's my thoughts on it.

CHIEF HOPKINS: Chief Edward Hopkins. We discussed this in Vermont. We discussed this at our caucus and we go along with the four day, and we also, one of the thoughts we had was to go from state to state, that each director would have it in his state. That this would give a chance to strengthen the organization. You have about 2500 Chiefs in New England, I believe, if my figures are correct, and you don't have too many here, so this would give an opportunity for many people to come and participate in the conference. It is just a thought we would like to give the directors.

CHIEF FOSS: Mike, one of the things I might bring up, would it be, where we have eliminated the Tuesday afternoon, if we had a conference Tuesday afternoon, would that help you?

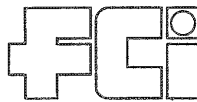

CHIEF MOISE: What we did as far as the Program Committee, we established the program to go a day and the morning of Tuesday, so the afternoon of Tuesday could be totally dedicated to the exhibitors in addition to the other time; and unfortunately we had a rain out, and as Ed just pointed out, they start to break up at that time, so we were just shuffling the proverbial stuff against the tide; so I think that we have to look at this from that standpoint. I don't think that half day makes a difference.

CHIEF COUTU: Chief Coutu, Rhode Island.

The recommendation of Mert on the change of date might cause a little problem for some of us who are affiliated with somebody working for a school department or having kids in school, the early part of June. Most of them come out of school around the 20th or the 21st, so that's a thought that we have to entertain.

CHIEF FALLON: Chief Fallon from Brookline. Relative to the four-day conference, it seems like the Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away. We are doing away with meals to save money and adding a day to add on money? I think that should be a consideration, too.

CHIEF BRENNAN: Mr. President, Brennan from Salem. Seems to me that Chief McCabe's motion was broad enough to encompass all the things we have got under discussion now. Perhaps the Board of Directors could review all the comments that Chief Moise has made and Chief Creighton and others and come up with a solution after proper research and evaluation.

CHIEF CARLE: Mr. Chairman, if I may, just a word. Eddy Creighton brought out the exhibits. Wherever you have it is fine with me. I'll go whenever it is at and wherever it is at, God bless, but as Eddy knows, you have received down here from New York many pieces of apparatus that sometimes you might not receive; and as a procedure you have always followed the state of New York Chiefs organization, and this year, Eddy, a good 20 odd pieces came from New York. Right?

CHIEF CREIGHTON: That's right.

CHIEF CARLE: If you total that up to dollars, there again it is dollars that dictate to what we should do for the solvency and the good of the organization.

CHIEF FOSS: Would it be agreeable to everybody if we might go along with Chief McCabe's motion and have the Board of Directors go over this and bring it in, report in at next year's conference?

FROM THE FLOOR: Move the question.

CHIEF MOISE: Did I understand his motion correctly that it was to report back for the October meeting of the Directors?

CHIEF FOSS: Yes, but I don't believe we can do anything unless we had a vote from the body, Mike.

CHIEF MOISE: I understand that, but as far as the feasibility study, so to speak, that is reported back to the directors?

CHIEF FOSS: Leo's motion was to have a special committee appointed and they would study this and come in at the October Directors meeting with some kind of a report that the Board of Directors would have to work on.

Could we have a vote on that motion?

FROM THE FLOOR: Call the question.

CHIEF FOSS: Can we have a vote on the motion? All those in favor say aye.

CHIEF GAUDET: On June 13 I received the following letter, New England Association of Fire Chiefs, addressed to me.

Dear Chief Gaudet:

On May 7, 1983 an accident occurred touching the lives of many people. Jon G. Manchester, Fire Chief in the town of Tiverton, Rhode Island, was killed in a recreational accident. A great deal can be said for this man whose accomplishments since being appointed Fire Chief in June 1977 were many. Chief Manchester was a member of the International Association of Fire Chiefs, the New England Association of Fire Chiefs and the Rhode Island Association of Fire Chiefs. He was Chairman of the Newport County Fire Chiefs Organization, and had been appointed to the Ambulance Service Coordinating Board of Rhode Island by Governor J. Joseph Garrahy. Chief Manchester had also completed an arson prevention course offered by the Rhode Island Division of Fire Safety, and various seminars offered by the National Fire Protectors Association. He received the Patriotism award of the Father Joseph B. Donahue Assembly, Knights of Columbus, and was to receive the Distinguished Service Award for Unselfish Devotion from the Father J. Boehr Council, Knights of Columbus on June 16. The award was made posthumously to his wife. Recently he was working very closely with other firemen to have passed through legislation a bill which would restrict the use of unvented space heaters, a bill which could potentially save the lives of many Rhode Islanders.

Besides being the Chief of the Tiverton Fire Department, Jon was also a devoted family man, and a great provider for his wife Karen J. Manchester and son Jason G. Manchester. To continue support for Jon's family, a committee has been organized for their benefit, specifically for benefit of his son.

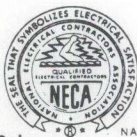

The purpose of the committee is to collect funds which will be put into a custodial account in care of Karen J. Manchester to be used at her discretion for the support, maintenance, health and education of Jason, or to meet any emergency such as illness or accident which may befall him.

We will appreciate greatly any support that you can provide us regarding this situation, and we know that Karen and Jason will also appreciate your kindness.

Sincerely,
Wayne D. Aballo, Chairman
Committee Chairman

This was sent to me and I thought it would be appropriate to read it to the membership this morning. I have a personal opinion, if someone I think probably would make a motion that it would be referred to the Board of Directors, I think that the Board of Directors would do something appropriate to help this situation here.

CHIEF BURNS: Chief Burns from Middletown, so moved.

CHIEF MODANOS: Chief Modanos, seconded.

CHIEF FOSS: This is going to be referred to the directors. Gentlemen, do you have a vote on this now?

CHIEF GAUDET: Refer to the Board of Directors to determine what will be given.

CHIEF FOSS: Can we have a vote on this, gentlemen? All those in favor say aye.

(Chorus of ayes)

CHIEF FOSS: Any opposed? No. Declare it a vote.

Any more new business?

Anybody out there, Mike, new business?

CHIEF MOISE: Mr. President, going back, not to the motion but to the point that Art mentioned, that he could do what I suggested next year, has anything been done on that? I don't think so.

CHIEF GAUDET: What's that?

CHIEF MOISE: On the idea of the meals, how can that be worked out? My reason for asking is this again. Number 1, the spread of people around the different other hotels, and as you say, it is better to have them in the one hotel for a better conference, no question. The meals that we had here, I am sure there were many complaints with them. I heard them and the price was a little bit high. Now, if that, some portion, whether breakfast did go, fine, no problem, but that might reduce the overall price to attract the other people here.

CHIEF GAUDET: Let me say this. That I have to agree with Chief Moise that the meal prices to me are extravagant because they figure tax, the gratuities, everything is figured in, and like I said, even the banquet tickets were supposed to be more than 20, and I said no way. Twenty was the absolute top. They wanted 21.75 and I said: No way. If you can't serve that meal for $20. then we might as well pack it in; but the original cost for the banquet ticket was going to be 21.75, and I said: No way.

So, you know, I know what's happening and I am just trying to relay this information to you. And when you pay $17.50 or $20.00 for a turkey dinner and you can go down the street and get the same thing for maybe $10, then you know that we have got a problem and there is no way when the package is established.

See, the problem is I come down here in February with Chief Creighton and we meet with the head man of the hotel here, and at that meeting we decide what the menu is going to be. We spend probably a four-hour meeting and trying to get all the particulars together, and before I leave, and for what I was here in February, it becomes very difficult. You sit there and you look at these menus and you say: How can we satisfy everybody? It is very difficult. You try to satisfy the majority, hopefully, but Monday night half of that dining room was empty because people paid for that dinner and they didn't serve half the dinners up there. In fact the management said they had something like a hundred dinners that weren't served, okay? They were paid for by people who registered in this hotel.

So it is a definite problem, and if we want to, if you want me and you want the committee to negotiate what Chief Moise has suggested, I'd be more than happy to, but I think we have to get a consensus here of the people in the Association. If they want to try this next year, I would be more than happy to go with it, but just give me some direction. I'll go with it.

CHIEF CREIGHTON: Mr. Secretary, are we locked into the prices for next year at the hotel or anything?

CHIEF GAUDET: We are locked in what they call a modified plan. Now, whether we can negotiate out of the meals I don't know, but it has been established as a modified plan which includes breakfast and dinner. Whether they say — that contract has been signed for '84, so whether they say you can't do that, we may be locked in for two years; but if I can get a — if we can get out, what I'm saying is in 1986 before I make a decision, I have to sign a contract, like I say, I sign the 1986 contract within two weeks after I leave here, okay, so I'm signing the 1986 contract is due the second week in July. That's locked in. So theoretically right now the '84 — we may not be able to get out of that. I have a signed contract for '84 and '85 for Dunfey's. I have got a contract that I'll have to sign with the Providence Marriott before the 15th of July. Okay? So what I'm saying is if you want, maybe I can't do it. I'll try to get out of it here if you want that. I'll say I'll try. Whether I will be successful, I don't know. But in '86 if I haven't signed the contract, maybe if you want to go that way I would be more than happy to try and do it.

CHIEF CARLE: Mr. President, if I may ask the question, I know we signed the contract. We all do in various organizations. What are our financial responsibilities if we do sign the contract and we change our mind? Is there a monetary agreement there that you are bound to or is it just a commitment, gentlemen's agreement, by signing basically that you plan to come and they hold these dates for you? Is the organization bound to a financial loss if you don't come here?

CHIEF GAUDET: What can I say, Jerry? When we sign a contract, we have no definite prices. I just got the definite price for '84 a couple of weeks ago. We are signing a contract that we are going to hold the conference there but they will not quote a price till 12 months before.

CHIEF CARLE: I know that, Arthur.

When you sign a contract with these people you sign that you will be coming here in June of '84 and June of '85?

CHIEF GAUDET: Right.

CHIEF CARLE: Is there any money involved or monetary value involved that the organization is liable if the organization chooses to go elsewhere in the meantime?

CHIEF GAUDET: You mean change the location?

CHIEF CARLE: Yes.

CHIEF GAUDET: I don't think you can. I think once you sign a contract, you are obligated.

CHIEF CARLE: You think, but I'm trying to find out here from somebody on the board, do we have a financial commitment, responsibility, dollars the organization is bound to pay if the members decided next year that in '85 they don't want to go here? That's my question. And the only reason I'm asking the questions, various people here are discussing this and where are we? Where are we? This is why I'm asking the question.

CHIEF DYER: If I may. I just have some of them here and I went through one of them. Dunfey's Hyannis for '86 has a cancellation clause in their contract, and I think the Marriott in Burlington had a cancellation clause and it is money. At a point. Dunfey's is after definite confirmation should a total group cancellation occur within 12 weeks of arrival, a cancellation fee of one night's package plan per person would be assessed and charged to your organization.

CHIEF CARLE: So you have 90 days, 12 weeks, three months.

CHIEF DYER: In this one contract.

CHIEF CARLE: If you choose, let's say, six months ahead not to go, you have no financial loss?

CHIEF DYER: In that particular one.

CHIEF CARLE: According to what you read. Thank you.

CHIEF DYER: When we backed out of Wentworth two years ago, we had no financial obligation there. That was their problem anyway.

FROM THE FLOOR: We didn't back out of Wentworth. They backed out on you.

CHIEF CARLE: This has been brought up many times, not to belabor this, but nobody actually knew if we had a final obligation or loss or commitment we had to meet, and this apparently explains what could happen.

CHIEF MOISE: Mr. President. I would like, we are talking about Art's ability to negotiate or renegotiate the contract that is for 1984. I don't believe specifically in that contract; it states that there must be two meals or what have you. That's the point I think that we are talking about or what I was talking about. As far as a location, that's another issue. The point I'm trying to make is that probably in the form of a motion that Art should be given that prerogative, whatever the body desires.

CHIEF McCABE: I think what Mike is trying to get, and I am going to make a motion to that effect, that a consensus vote be taken here this morning as a guideline for the officers in negotiating not only the '86 contract, but if they are going to do any renewed negotiation on the '84 or '85 contract as to what the members would like to have, and Mike's motion is that they try to set up a package deal which includes the banquet only as far as meals. Is that right, Mike?

CHIEF MOISE: I said that is mine but there are some other options.

CHIEF McCABE: Can we get a consensus on that?

CHIEF TWEED: Are you making that as the form of a motion?

Chief John Tweed, Branford, I second Leo's motion.

CHIEF McCABE: The motion we are making is to get a consensus vote that the officers be instructed to try to negotiate a package deal that requires the banquet ticket only.

CHIEF CARLE: Mr. President, Jerry Carle. I support the motion and I'll tell you another reason why. Sunday night I bought an additional ticket for dinner and it was almost $22 for Sunday night's meal. I bought another guest ticket for Monday night because I have a friend here that lives in Hyannis, and it was $18 for the turkey dinner, so you can see that there is big bucks involved, and I think for the good of the organization, if you do go along with Leo's motion and recommend that the committee do that, I think it would be beneficial to the organization.

CHIEF FOSS: Can we have a vote on Leo's motion? Chief Grote.

CHIEF GROTE: Mr. President, I can't sit here and digest this, and being one of your great grandfathers, no. 1, I don't know what — I was going to use a rough word. How did we get into this mess? Do you have the trust and confidence in the Directors that you elect and have faith in that they are going to be the Directors? The answer is yes, isn't it? Now, if they don't have the authority, shall we grant them the authority and leave this matter in their hands?

I have belonged to many associations in the past 71 years, not the day before yesterday, and I sit here and say: How in hell — I have to use that word, Father — we got into this mess that you don't trust those men there on the Board of Directors?

Now, wait a minute. We are going backwards instead of forwards. Let's get things straight for once and for all. If there is any personality in this, you better leave it outside. I personally meet you when I cross that threshold with the principle that I treat you as I want to be treated, and that's the reason why I have the confidence in the officers of this Association. I didn't vote for Reagan, but he is the President of the United States, and I'll back him all the way. Now, I'm the same way. You may not like some of those Directors, but you elected them. It is more than an obligation to support them and give them the power.

(Applause)

CHIEF FOSS: All those opposed?

(Silence)

CHIEF FOSS: Declare it a vote.

Any other new business?

FROM THE FLOOR: Get an opinion now. John Read, Chief Avon Fire Department, Massachusetts. The motion was to get a viewpoint. Now you have got to get that viewpoint. Frankly I don't think we needed that motion. All you had to do was to ask whether they want meals or not for a consensus.

CHIEF GAUDET: Raise the hands.

FROM THE FLOOR: Isn't that what the motion was?

CHIEF GAUDET: All those in favor of doing away with the meals except for the banquet, raise your hands and we'll get an idea.

(Audience raised hands.)

CHIEF BURNS: Chief Burns from Middletown. I think Chief Gaudet brought up the point that breakfast might be included for the benefit of the people who are staying here that are officers that have to work. That might be an option. I note from my own experience I did not come here on the package deal. I came here, rented a room and have been going out to the restaurants and eating, and I think I have spent less than what is required of you people. I have eaten in the Paddock. I have eaten in some good restaurants here, and I think I have spent less than $150. I think this whole thing has to be put in the hands of the Board of Directors, like Chief Grote said, and we have to trust you.

CHIEF FOSS: Thank you.

FROM THE FLOOR: Mr. President, you do away with all meals. If anybody wants a meal, you have the restaurant downstairs, you can buy it on your own money.

The hotel charges you maybe four or five dollars for a breakfast. Maybe you want just coffee and a roll, go out and get it.

CHIEF FOSS: Any other new business to come before the meeting?

CHIEF GAUDET: One thing, somebody at the banquet said that they would take the raffle winning of Frank Sposetto. Anybody here that said they would take that to him?

CHIEF STANLEY: Fred Stanley from Rhode Island. I'll take it.

CHIEF GAUDET: You know who this gentleman is? That's fine.

CHIEF MOISE: Can I have a clarification?

CHIEF FOSS: Quiet, please.

CHIEF MOISE: Just a clarification. Last year we had a problem with knowing exactly what to do. I think this is fine here that Art now knows what to do, but we have to remember the point which is well taken. That applies to here. Now, you may have to go to Bretton Woods at sometime in the future where you have to take the meals. Let's just keep that point in mind.

CHIEF FOSS: Any resolutions or any other new business? Anybody have resolutions they'd like to bring up at this time? If not, Father Foley.

CHIEF CARLE: Mr. President, on the good of the order if I may for one second, if I can have a minute?

CHIEF FOSS: Yes, sir.

GOOD OF THE ORDER

CHIEF CARLE: At this time fellow Fire Chiefs, Mr. President, Father Foley and officers and members of the New England Association of Fire Chiefs, you have heard read in the reports of the treasurer some expenditures last year pertaining to myself. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the New England Association and all its members and all the Chiefs in the New England Association for supporting my candidacy as you know for a Second Vice President in the International Association of Fire Chiefs and their active association, also monetary value. It was greatly appreciated by me, and as you know, I was elected and because of the support that New England gave, I was very gratified, myself and my wife, and I would like to thank personally each and every one of you from all the various state organization for your support towards my candidacy. Thank you very much.

CHIEF FOSS: Thank you, Jerry.

(Applause)

FROM THE FLOOR: Mr. President, I am the director, Vermont's Director to the National Volunteer Fire Council in Connecticut, New Hampshire and Maine, the other states do not; and in the fall of 1984 we are going to host the meeting in Middlebury, Vermont, and I'd like to extend a warm welcome to the states that don't belong to come and participate. The next meeting is in Seattle and the following one Nebraska, so it is a golden opportunity for Rhode Island and Massachusetts to send somebody and see the workings of the Council. I would like to extend a warm welcome to make sure those states come to visit us in the state of Vermont in the fall of '84.

CHIEF SCHNEIDER: Harry Schneider, Agawam.

I would like to hear from our Vice President what's going on this coming fall on the International meeting, where, when, how?

CHIEF CARLE: Thank you. Harry. Mr. President, as you know, the International has a conference and many of us here, probably a good majority belong to both organizations. For a report for the International, the International will be held in Atlanta. The members that do belong to this Association have all been notified by our Secretary Nelson Harris of the days and the hotel costs and the airline package and also that we are planning, the dates will be the the 28th of August to September 1st in Atlanta, Georgia. The New England group will be housed at the Hilton Hotel, and also to inform you people if you plan on coming down, the New England Association, the Division will host a hospitality suite Saturday, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday night with the cooperation of the vendors and the manufacturers that we have in our New England area.

If any one of you plan on going and have not made your decision at this time, I would urge you to do so as early as possible to contact Chief Harris of North Reading, Secretary-Treasurer, so he can see if he can line up some rooms because the rooms that were held were up to a certain day and the remainder have been turned back. We do anticipate a nice crowd out there and a little foresight for next year, if I may, there are many that are looking forward to going to Los Angeles next year. The date will be the last week in September through the second or third of October. And they will be coming in there for the International conference right behind the 1984 Olympics, summer Olympics, so they are doing a lot of work out there in Los Angeles for the Olympics and a lot of other things going on at that time.

CHIEF FALLON: Chief Fallon, Brookline. I would like to make a quick motion to thank two outgoing directors for a job well done during the years they worked very long and very hard for the Association, and that would be Chief Leo McCabe of Medford, Massachusetts and Chief John Lydon, from Manchester, New Hampshire.

(Applause)

CHIEF FOSS: No other business? Father Foley. Maybe we can get you this time.

FATHER FOLEY: Let us pray. Heavenly Father, we end this conference as we began it by asking your blessing. In a special way we ask a blessing for a safe return trip home and give the wisdom and the prudence to our President, Officers and Directors to make the necessary and proper decisions for the betterment of the Association. Now, may the peace of God which surpasses all understanding keep your hearts and minds and knowledge in the love of God and of his Son our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

CHIEF FOSS: Would the Board of Directors stay for a few minutes? Could we have a motion for adjournment?

FROM THE FLOOR: So moved.

CHIEF FOSS: All those in favor?

Voice confirmation cuts false alarms up to 95%.

The new Gamewell Emergency Voice Communications System is a telephone handset that automatically sends box location codes to headquarters, and allows the person turning in the alarm to describe the situation. The system works on the same 100 mil loop as the coded telegraphic boxes, and is compatible with them. With all this modern technology, the EVCS is unmatched for reliability.

And pass the word in smaller buildings.

The Gamewell A-40 System is designed especially for small hospitals, schools and industrial plants not classified as high-rise. It consists of a 40-watt amplifier and speakers. The amplifier responds to alarms with an audible signal (a slow whoop, a 1000Hz tone or a coded 1000Hz tone); the integral microphone is then keyed to permit voice communication by the fire services to occupants via the speaker system.

For information about these systems, or any other component of the complete line of Gamewell life safety equipment, call.

AERIAL DEVICE INSPECTION

When Firefighter's lives are on the line

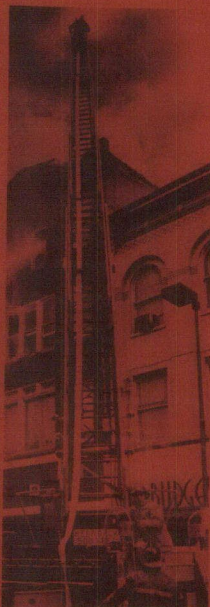

Why take a chance on equipment failure. . .

Dedicated, trained personnel working with equipment not properly inspected and maintained, risk injury to themselves and others. Equipment failure adds greatly to loss of property and consequently higher insurance rates. It does not have to happen in your department. Proper comprehensive safety inspections are available and at a cost within the budget of every department.

AERIAL TESTING CORP. is an independent nondestructive testing and inspection corporation which specializes in Aerial Device Equipment. The purpose of our inspection is twofold: (1), to help serve as a guide for manufacturers, dealers, installers and users of aerial device equipment; (2), to offer independent, objective safety tests and inspections for Fire Department Aerial Device Equipment. Our primary objective as a service to the Fire Industry is the prevention of personal injuries to both users and the public.

WHY SHOULD YOU CHOOSE AERIAL TESTING CORPORATION?

Today's sophisticated equipment requires knowledgeable technicians to detect and correct not only existing problems but potential future problems which may cause the device to fail or be placed out of service. Unlike most aerial device inspection companies whose services are limited to only structural deficiencies, AERIAL TESTING CORPORATION, in addition, offers operational, functional and maintenance checks as part of our routine inspection.

The advantage of our Aerial Device Inspection program is that not only can we detect structural deficiencies, but we can detect functional deficiencies prior to any real "brake down"; and in most cases advise as to what corrective action can and should be taken.

The safety inspection we offer is quite comprehensive. It is performed by trained inspectors who are certified in accordance with the requirements of the American Society for Non-Destructive Testing—Document SNT-TC-IA.

AERIAL TESTING CORP.'S inspection is divided into four major parts. . . (1) Visual Inspection, (2) Nondestructive tests, (3) Functional tests and (4) Structural tests.

Safety is of paramount importance. Our Services provide aerial device crews with the added confidence and sense of security needed when operating Aerial Device Equipment.
