Led by the Sturbridge Fire Department Color Guard, members march to the Federated Church for the annual Memorial Service to honor our departed brothers.

Memorial Service

[The procession entered the church and the colors were posted.]

CHIEF CARL H. WINSLOW: [Yarmouth, ME] All join with me in the pledge to the flag, please.

[The Pledge of Allegiance was said.]

REVEREND CHARLES L. CHALK: [Merrimack, NH] You may be seated. Turn to page 550 to My Country 'Tis of Thee. We will sing all four verses. Page No. 550.

[My Country 'Tis of Thee was sung.]

PRESIDENT WENDALL M. MANSFIELD: [Stowe, VT] Good evening, ladies and gentlemen, wives, chiefs, and honored guests. Reverend Goble is sick and not able to be here tonight. We would like to thank the Federated Church for allowing us to use this facility in holding our Memorial Service again. We also wish Reverend Goble the best and get well soon.

I would also like to take the opportunity to thank the Sturbridge Color Guard.

CHIEF LEONARD E. SENECA: [Sturbridge, MA] Good evening. On behalf of myself, my wife Cindy, and the Town of Sturbridge, I would like to welcome everyone here for the 70th Annual New England Association of Fire Chiefs Conference. It has been my pleasure once again to be your host chief on the fourth and final year in the Town of Sturbridge. I hope you have all enjoyed our town and that this proves to be our most memorable. We've met new friends and old friends along the way and cherish these moments forever. So everybody relax, enjoy, and be happy. Thank you very much.

REVEREND CHALK: Thank you, Chief. You will join with me in the call to worship that is found in your pamphlet for the evening.

Give thanks to the Lord for He is good, His kindness endures forever.

PEOPLE: Happy are they who observe what is right.

Who do always what is just.

REVEREND CHALK: Remember us, O Lord in time of need.

PEOPLE: Visit us with your saving help.

REVEREND CHALK: I call on Reverend Steve Foley to the pulpit to read the scripture reading for this evening.

REVEREND STEPHEN C. FOLEY: [West Hartford, CT]
Our scripture selection is taken from the Book of Revelation.

And John saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away and the sea was no more.

And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem coming down from heaven, from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

And then I heard a great voice from the throne say, "Blessed are they who die in the Lord for they shall take their good works with them."

Thus ends the scripture reading.

REVEREND CHALK: Join me again if you will in hymn 548, America the Beautiful, No. 548. We will sing all four verses and let's stand as we sing all four verses. It seems to give it something special.

[America the Beautiful was sung.]

REVEREND CHALK: You may be seated.

REVEREND FOLEY: And get comfortable. I plan to speak for about 45 minutes.

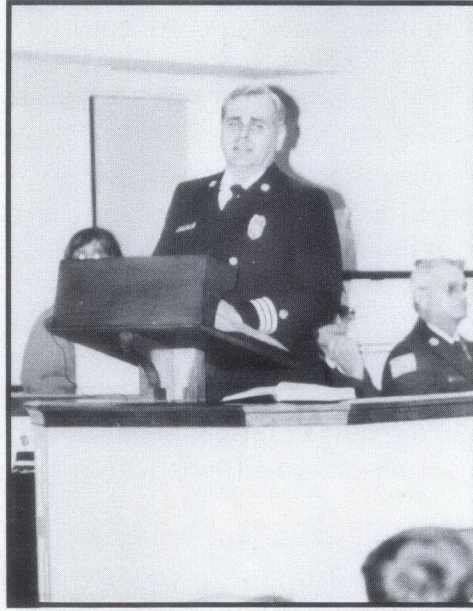

[Laughter]

REVEREND FOLEY: After all, we are in a Protestant church and it is not often that a Catholic gets to preach that long.

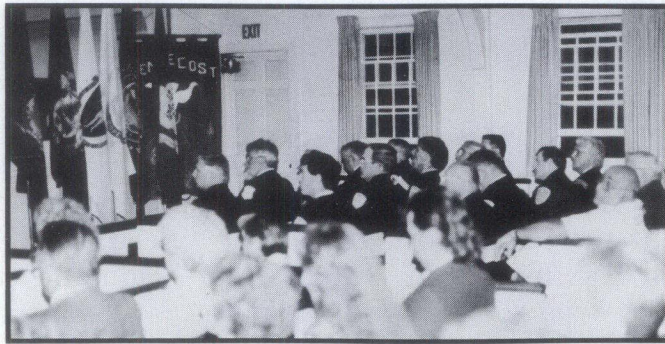

[Laughter]

REVEREND FOLEY: Perhaps some of you will recall that at this very convention some 20 years ago, we were very, very saddened at the outset to learn of a tragic fire at Commonwealth and Dartmouth in Boston. The Vendome Hotel collapsed, taking with it nine valiant souls and injuring some 25 or 30 others, many of them permanently for life.

But how many of you realize the struggle that has gone on in these past 20 years to have a memorial placed on that spot in their memory? And I had quite forgotten about that myself until on my 51st birthday -- and for those of you who don't know, that's May 26th.

Members and spouses listen intently as Father Foley delivers the homily.

[Laughter]

REVEREND FOLEY: -- when there was an article in The Boston Globe by Mike Barnicle. Now, many of you know Mike Barnicle is a very famous columnist. His articles are read throughout the entire country, not simply in the Greater Boston area. And as the saying goes, Mike likes to tell it as it is. And in part what he had to say about that fire and what has followed in the 20 years ever since that time in this struggle.

I mention this because the 20th anniversary was this past Wednesday, but it is symbolical of the struggle that we have day in and day out to make the public realize what the fire service is all about. And I like that term "service" as opposed to "department" because it reminds us of what our existence is for others.

"I remember," says Mike, "when with no warning at 1730 hours floors collapsed like egg shells and more than 25 firefighters toppled through the dust and embers, bricks and boards, landing in a rubble of ash and blood. I remember the screams and I can still see the bodies, nine of them, mangled, mutilated, being carried out of the debris and darkness by their comrades in tears."

And he goes on to describe the funeral at Holy Cross Cathedral, which many of us left to attend in Boston with some 10,000 firefighters in uniform, with Cardinal Medeiros himself presiding over the common funeral of nine firefighters whose caskets lined the entire front of that huge cathedral.

And the many thousands who stood outside in the pouring rain because they could not fit within those hallowed walls, I remember that day well as I remember every funeral I've ever celebrated for a firefighter who died in the line of duty. But now here is the part that's even sadder.

Now, 20 years after the fire, the Department in Boston is still struggling to place but a small plaque on the sidewalk near the corner of Commonwealth and Dartmouth. But all the aristocrats on State Street, those who dress in fancy suits and expensive clothing, have thought that plaque might detour tourists. It might be bad, maybe so, they said, on the city's history.

Well, the Department administration and the firefighters union are still struggling. "I think they'll say no again," Mr. Kilduff, the secretary of the union said, "they aren't really interested in what we do.” And then he goes on to say -- and you can all relate to this whether you are from a large department or a small one -- “A couple of weeks ago I stood outside a burning apartment in Roxbury and watched the trucks come up the street. I’m always amazed when I see these men and women, flags flying from the apparatus, the bastion of American patriotism. They rush unhesitatingly into smoke-filled darkness after complete strangers. The firefighters were white and black and brown. They live in different backgrounds and yet move as one fluid machine to help people, to save lives and protect the property of those they’ve never met.

“I tell you this today,” says Mike Barnicle, “I’ve seen more honor, more pride, more commitment and more compassion in firehouses and police stations throughout the country than I ever witnessed in our great universities, our large banks, our big businesses, City Hall, the State House or the halls of Congress. And yet, we cannot even place a small plaque on the sidewalk.”

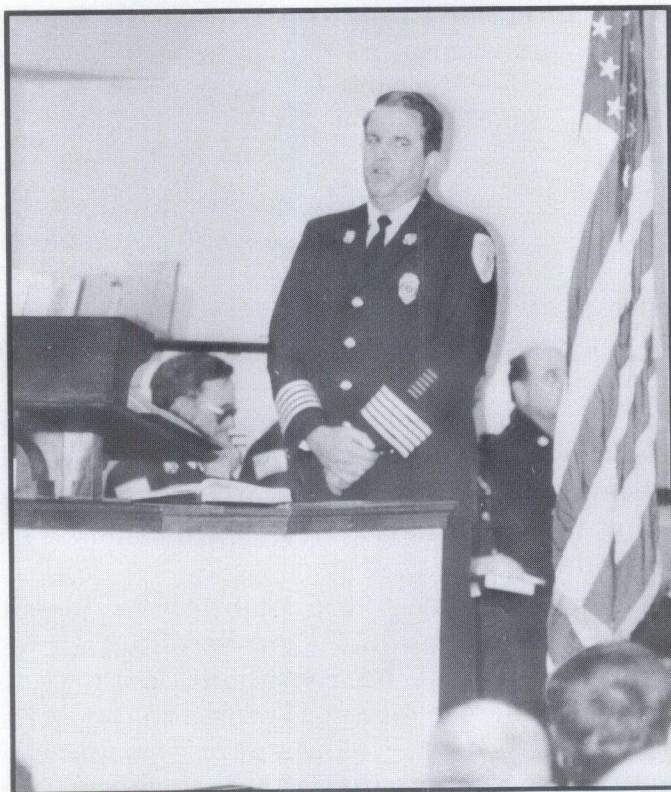

Now, here’s a very interesting paragraph. “Because it not only tells us what people think of the fire service many times, but it also bespeaks the problems confronting us as a nation. We have seen the trouble in Los Angeles but there is a constant riot of money and greed that goes on every day in this city, Boston, and every other city in the country where spirit is looted and pride is diminished, all in the shadows of indifference.”

Think about it. And what he says about Boston could be said about any place in the fire service. Think about it. What kind of atmosphere do we have where nine public servants who gave their lives cannot be remembered, simply because a handful are concerned about appearances and the contour of the sidewalk.

“All it was going to be was a little plaque rimmed by bricks,” said Mikey Mullane, Regional Vice President of the Boston Firefighters, “you know, something like the stars on Hollywood Boulevard.”

But Kilduff said, “We ain’t no stars to these people.”

There it is. What more can we say except what was said in the scripture. Maybe the people in Boston don’t want to hear it. Maybe the people in this country don’t want to hear it. But the fire service is a noble tradition and the words of Revelation apply to us as well as they do to anybody because we stand for loyalty to duty and compassion and service to others.

Chief John P. Jenkins of West Barnstable, Massachusetts sings the LORD'S PRAYER at the annual Memorial Service.

Blessed are those who die to the Lord for their good works shall accompany them.

CHIEF JOHN P. JENKINS: [West Barnstable, MA] I dedicate this night to the memory of our grandfather, Fire Marshal James Grote.

[Chief Jenkins sang the Lord's Prayer.]

CHIEF ANTHONY W. JARVIS: [Ludlow, MA] Would you join in reciting the Firefighter's Prayer, which is located on the back cover of the pamphlet. All join in.

*When I am called to duty, God
Wherever flames may rage,
Give me strength to save some life
Whatever be its age.
Help me embrace a little child
Before it is too late
Or save an older person from the horror of that fate*

*Enable me to be alert
And hear the weakest shout
And quickly and efficiently
To put the fire out.
I want to fill my calling and
To give the best in me,
To guard my every neighbor
And protect his property.*

*And if according to my fate
I am to lose my life,
Please bless with your protecting hand
My children and my wife*

CHIEF MARTIN J. JORDAN: [Portland, ME] I want to thank you for being here this evening. It's nice to see the same faces every year that we have been here for the past four years. To me this is probably the most important part of the Conference in remembering our departed brothers. Let us reflect upon the reading of each of our departed brothers' names as I go through the list and each time the bell will toll.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Now if everyone would join in a moment of silence for our departed members and their families of the names that were called.

[A moment of silence observed.]

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: And now again I want to thank everyone for attending this 70th Memorial Service. I hope it is an enjoyable and productive Conference and that we have one of the best ones we've had so far. We have all enjoyed putting it on for you.

I turn it over to Reverend Charles Chalk.

REVEREND CHALK: Stand for the benediction.

Let us pray. Our heavenly Father, we tonight thank you for the privilege of again gathering that we might share with one another the friendships we have established through the years. We pray, Lord, this will be a blessed Conference. That a good time will be had by all. That we will learn things in the seminars. We will meet and find new friends. That we might have a blessed time. That we might be able to go back and serve our communities in a better way and in a stronger way, having learned from others and gathered the energy we need. We thank You for what You blessed us with. Protect us, watch over us, so we might gather again next year in Jesus' name. Amen.

We will sing the National Anthem at page 552. We will sing both verses. No. 552.

[The Star-Spangled Banner sung.]

[The color guard came forward and the flags were taken out.]

[The procession left the church.]

[The Memorial Service concluded at 8:50 p.m.]

Annual Meeting

PRESIDENT WENDALL M. MANSFIELD: [Stowe, VT] I would like to call the meeting to order.

Please stand and salute the flag.

[Pledge of Allegiance said.]

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Please remain standing. Reverend Chalk.

REVEREND CHARLES L. CHALK: [Merrimack, NH] Let us pray.

Our Heavenly Father, we thank You for this time we can gather together. Today we have important matters to deal with. Lord, give them wisdom. Lord, You will bless the Association as it continues down the years. We pray this Association years from now, even another 70 years it be in existence. Give us, please give us guidance in Jesus' name. Amen.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: You may be seated.

I would like to welcome you all to this 70th Conference of the New England Association of Fire Chiefs.

At this time I am going to appoint Merton Dyer from the State of New Hampshire as the parliamentarian, which he has been for a number of years.

And I'll turn it over to Chief Senecal for an address of welcome.

CHIEF LEONARD E. SENECA: [Sturbridge, MA] Thank you, President Mansfield. It's been a pleasure for the last four years to host this fine organization in the Town of Sturbridge. We're very pleased that we are the first to get this honor from this Association and it's lasted for the last four.

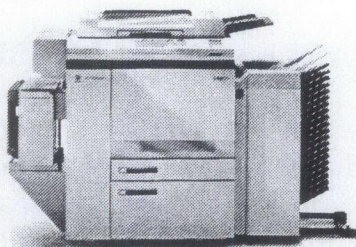

The Fire Department and myself would like to thank this Association for all the things they have done for our Fire Department in the Town of Sturbridge. I hope you all enjoy our town. I would like to wish this organization good luck in the future. Thank you very much.

[Applause]

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Thank you, Chief Senecal.

I would also like to ask the members when you are speaking

I would have the report of the Secretary, Martin Jordan, please.

CHIEF MARTIN J. JORDAN: [Portland, ME] Report of the Secretary for 1992.

To the Officers and Members of the New England Association of Fire Chiefs, Incorporated, I hereby submit the Annual Report of the Secretary for the year ending May 31st, 1992.

The Board of Directors fall meeting was held on October 4, 1991 at the Sheraton Monarch, Springfield. A special Board of Directors meeting was held at the Sheraton, Nashua, New Hampshire on March 20, 1992. Our spring Board of Directors meeting was held at the Sheraton Ferncroft in Danvers, Mass. on May 1st, 1992. The yearly Association business was transacted along with the formulation and completion of plans for the 70th Annual Conference and Exposition.

No site selection committee was necessary this year due to the double site award to Springfield for 1994 and 1995.

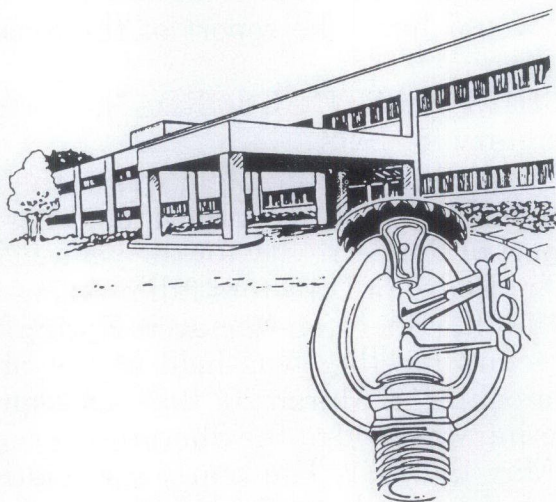

President Mansfield and your Secretary transacted all yearly Association business professionally and in the best interest of the Association.

The 1991 Red Book was printed and distributed to all members of the Association in January. All other mailings were also made at their designated times. In addition, 3,000 announcement cards describing our Conference were sent to all the fire departments in New England.

At this time, I would like to remind all of you of the importance of your state directors. You elect these gentlemen and if you need anything, I urge you not to hesitate to contact them. In addition, please let them know of any retirements, deaths or change of address, most importantly, of our members.

During 1991, we welcomed new faces into our organization. As of May 31, our membership consists of:

Connecticut	233
Maine	66
Massachusetts	498
New Hampshire	111
Rhode Island	127
Vermont	53
Out of state	30

Environmental Fire Protection, Inc.

TEL. (508) 485-8183

Environmental Fire Protection (E.F.P.) has offered comprehensive Automatic Sprinkler system design and installation services for over 17 years.

WHY E.F.P.?

- Upon receipt of plans, we can give you a price within two days.
- E.F.P. has an in-house design staff, which speeds up the time frame between the award of the job and the actual installation.
- We keep abreast of current fire protection system developments.
- E.F.P. services Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island.
- E.F.P. has a fabrication shop and we deliver in our own trucks.
- E.F.P.'s bonding capacity is unlimited.

Because we have the capabilities to do all engineering and fabrication in-house, we can offer you, the contractor, more efficient service, lower costs and quicker turnaround than our closest competitor.

We are confident that our combination of specialized equipment and inventory, trained personnel and commitment to excellence will provide you with the Automatic Sprinkler system that will best protect your next project -- large or small.

Call us today for a free computerized estimate, or if you have need for any fire protection system services.

According to rank we have the following active membership:

Active	409
Associate	214
Retired	404
Life	25
Vendor	66

Total Membership of 1,118 members.

During the past year, the following members joined:

Connecticut	8
Maine	3
Massachusetts	19
New Hampshire	2
Rhode Island	12
Vermont	3
Retired	27

This year we had a total of 48 new members, down from 166 from last year. The economy has hit all of us, with many chiefs retiring this year. Let's all try to welcome their replacements into the Association.

The Association lost by death 12 members. We terminated 57 for non-payment of dues and 31 for returned correspondence with no deliverable address. And 142 at this date have not paid the dues for this date. All members removed for non-payment of dues were notified three times and were then removed from the rolls in accordance with Article V, Section II of the Association by-laws.

All members applying for Honorary Life Membership and meeting the by-laws of the Association were admitted.

Much time was spent over the past year preparing for our change to a larger convention center. Preregistration for our Annual Conference has proven to be a great time saver and a speedy process, allowing for more time to be spent at the exhibits.

A new Red Book contract was signed by the Secretary-Treasurer, giving us an annual payment of $15,000 for a contract total of $45,000. In addition, our Monday night entertainment is paid for by the bidder of the contract.

Today the safety of your home can no longer be taken for granted. No matter where you live, the threat of fire, burglary, vandalism and accident is present.

The cost of misfortune takes its toll. On your bank balance, on insurance costs and, ultimately, on your peace of mind. That's why you need security services that are equal to the hazards of our times. You need the services of National Guardian.

National Guardian combines advanced electronics at a UL-approved 24-hour monitoring center to offer you unparalleled peace of mind.

So when you need a level of security that measures up to the hazards of the times, remember, this is the bottom line:

Nobody does more to secure the way America lives.

National Guardian

9 Emerald Street, Norwalk, CT 06850 ★ 203-847-5050

In closing, it has been an honor and a privilege to have served you over the past year and the past five Conferences as Secretary-Treasurer of our Association. The friends, acquaintances, and personal satisfaction I have received during this time has been great. I'm very appreciative of the Board of Directors for their unanimous vote of confidence to support me in the attempt to continue holding this position and it is one of the greatest compliments one can be paid. I thank you all for your confidence in me.

To Exhibit Chairman Maurais, your support has been unending and your friendship will be life-long.

A special appreciation to my wife Amelia for her continued invaluable assistance throughout the year.

As I depart this office, I leave you with a 100 percent increase in Association funds and ask you all, if you feel the Association is better off today than it was, and the job I did was worth it.

Again, thank you for your confidence and support. I have enjoyed serving you.

Respectfully submitted,

Chief Martin J. Jordan, Secretary.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: You heard the Secretary's report. What is your pleasure?

CHIEF DENNIS NEWMAN [Sandwich, MA] I move the report be accepted as read.

CHIEF CHARLES F. MAURAI: [Marblehead, MA] I would like to give the report for the Exhibit Committee for the 70th Annual Conference. I would like to thank the Committee Chief Dave Jorsey, Chief Ed Webster, Chief John Flaherty and President Wendall Mansfield.

Also my wife Linda, Pat Wyatt, Carolyn Small, Pat Winslow, Beth LaDuke, and Sandy Nunes.

I would also like to thank Lila Gillespie of Electrosonics International for the radios, an asset to the Association and it makes it a lot easier for everybody to communicate back and forth and thanks for all their help.

Again a thank you to the vendors for the donations and gifts for our drawing, Marilyn & Gil's Fire Station, L.W. Bills Fire Barn, D.M.C. Associates, Alexander Batteries, and Page Creations.

There were 140 inside booth spaces and 84 outside vehicle spaces for a total of 224 spaces. An additional eight exhibitor badges were issued at the show. There were approximately 700 exhibitor badges. The total receipts for the Exhibit Committee for this Conference was $32,885.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: You have heard the Exhibit Committee report. What is your pleasure?

RETIRED CHIEF OTIS C. WYATT, JR.: [Narragansett, RI] I move we accept the Exhibit Committee's report and a vote of thanks to its chairman Charlie Maurais for an excellent financial standing.

your dues?

[Laughter]

CHIEF CENTRACCHIO: The Program Committee report for the 70th Annual Conference is as follows:

First of all, I would like to thank my committee: Sidney Thurston, Chief Brian Wade, and Chief George Small for an excellent job and their support and help throughout the year.

For those of you who did not attend, you missed an excellent program. We had a total attendance of 235 throughout the three conferences or seminars and our expenses to date have been $1683. On behalf of the Program Committee, I think throughout the last four or five years we've done an excellent job with fine, exemplary talent right within the fire service. I thank you and thank the Association for a job well done.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: You heard the Program Committee report. What is your pleasure?

CHIEF JOHN J. FLAHERTY: [West Springfield, MA] I make a motion to accept as read.

Now the report of the Registration Committee. Chief Jordan.

CHIEF MARTIN J. JORDAN: [Portland, ME] Well, we did it again you heard some of the statistics and you know what we have done. Pre-registration is 297, which is down from 316 from last year. And honestly I attribute that to being bored here for four years at Sturbridge and it is enough. We registered 37 at the desk. Ladies registration was 121, down from 192. Day passes were 913, up from 825. The first time ever we have gone over 900 in that figure. Dues were 280, up from 60. A total conference attendance of 1,368, up from 1,308 so we gained 60 attendees.

My goal, like Jerry Lewis' Telethon is one more dollar. We did it by 64.

Expenses: Cash box 500. Vendors 825. We received 516 for the banquet. 171 for saleables. Registration of 1287. Day passes 913.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Those opposed.

So carried.

At this time before we go any further, I am remiss, we should stand and have a moment of silence for our grandfather who is not here, the late Jim Grote. My apologies.

[A moment of silence observed.]

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Thank you. Please be seated.

Now the report of the By-Laws Committee, Carl Winslow.

CHIEF CARL H. WINSLOW: [Yarmouth, ME] Thank you, Mr. President. The Board of Directors voted unanimously to propose three changes in the by-laws of the New England Association of Fire Chiefs, Incorporated.

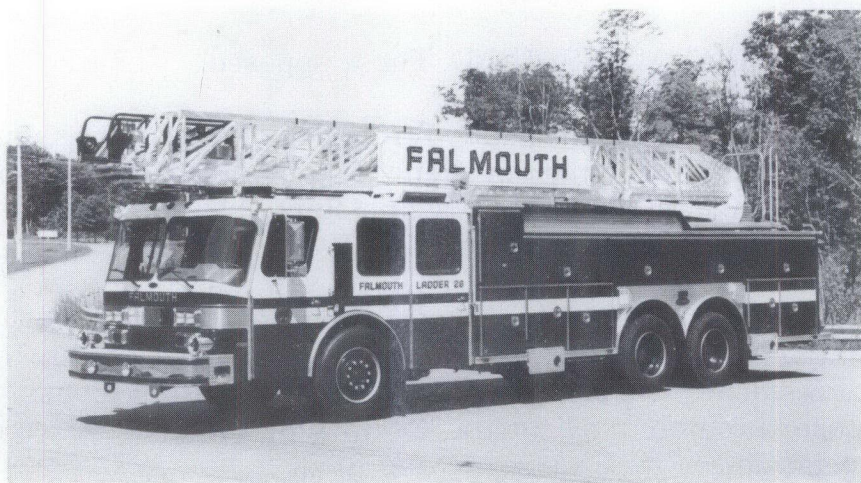

The following changes were proposed: Following the provision of Article IV, Section 6 change to Article I "The Officers" Section 1, by adding "with the exception of the Secretary or Treasurer who shall be or have been an active fire chief and is a member of the Association" to the sentence, "A member shall be an active member when elected to office."

The second change is the change to Article III, "Duties" Section 3 by deleting "The Secretary shall have in addition all the powers and duties of a 'Clerk' under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. He shall be a resident of Massachusetts as required by said laws."

The third proposed change to Article III, "Duties" by adding a Section 6: "The 'Clerk' of the corporation shall be the Director from Massachusetts. The 'Clerk' shall perform all the duties required under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for corporations."

At this time on behalf of the Board of Directors, I hereby move that the Association postpone indefinitely the proposed changes to the by-laws.

CHIEF JOHN J. FLAHERTY: [West Springfield, MA] I second that.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: I need the motion passed that was just made by Chief Winslow on the postponement and I believe it has to be on behalf of the Board of Directors. I would read it.

“I hereby move that the Association postpone indefinitely the proposed by-law changes made by Carl and seconded by John Flaherty.”

Any discussion on the motion? Chief.

CHIEF RONALD M. LIMA: [Windsor, VT] Why the postponement?

CHIEF WINSLOW: At this time it is felt by the Board of Directors that they would like to propose next year a more in-depth revision of the by-laws. It's been suggested by a number of the members that there are other sections of the by-laws that need to be updated and rather than do it piecemeal, to do it all at once. That is the reason the Board is recommending a postponement at this time.

RETIRED CHIEF GERARD A. CARLE: [Dracut, MA] If I heard right, you said with the Board's recommendation. Other than the by-laws committee; is that right?

CHIEF WINSLOW: Yes.

RETIRED CHIEF CARLE: Thank you.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Any other discussion on the motion?

If not, all in favor of the motion to postpone signify by saying aye.

[Aye]

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Those opposed?

Motion carried.

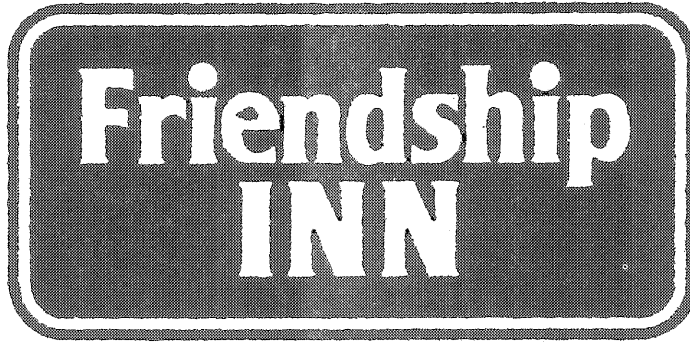

The next order of business will be to set the salary of the Treasurer for the year.

RETIRED CHIEF GERARD A. CARLE: [Dracut, MA] Mr. President, may we have a recommendation from the Board?

CHIEF CARL H. WINSLOW: [Yarmouth, ME] Mr. President, on behalf of the Board of Directors, I move that the salary of the Treasurer for the '92-93 year be set at $3500.

CHIEF HARUBIN: [Wareham] Second.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: That was a suggestion, not a motion by Chief Winslow.

FROM THE FLOOR: What is the salary currently?

CHIEF WINSLOW: The salary at present is $5,000 for each office.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Any other discussion on the motion?

CHIEF JAMES N. RUSSO: [Hull, MA] Can we have some discussion as to why the salary was dropped this year and what the recommendation is and why?

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: I'll turn it back to Carl. unless someone else would like to do it?

CHIEF CARL H. WINSLOW: Bob Nunes wants me to do all the dirty work.

[Laughter]

CHIEF ROBERT J. NUNES: [Chicopee, MA] They don't beat old guys, do they?

[Laughter]

CHIEF WINSLOW: One of the reasons the Board is looking at this is the fact we are going into a new person in the position and we felt it is typically of any occupation that people moving into a new job doesn't start at the top salary being paid the person leaving the job. There are also going to be some things we are going to have to do, that the Board and Marty are going to have to do for the current Secretary to make the transition. And therefore, the Board felt this was two-thirds of what we are currently paying for the position and we felt that was our recommendation.

CHIEF RUSSO: If the job's salary was $10,000 and knowing the work that Martin Jordan has done for this Association, I'm not convinced $10,000 was even sufficient. But I will tell you that if we're bringing in a new Secretary-Treasurer and we're constantly moving places and this Association is growing and this Conference is growing, there seems to be added responsibilities to that position. It seems a little ridiculous to me to be dropping the salary for the person coming in. I don't see a lot of incentive there for the person to come in and exert any type of energy that this Association is going to require of him with that.

I would substitute the motion that the salary remain $5,000 for the position.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: We have to vote on the first motion. Amend the motion.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Any discussion on the amendment?

CHIEF ROBERT A. DIPOLI: [Needham, MA] Anybody worth in the department where an incumbent has left and the new one comes in, they usually come in at more money. The job is every bit as hard the first day as it is the last day so I support that motion.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Any discussion?

CHIEF WENDELL J. McNAMARA: [Wrentham, MA] Have we ever cut the pay of the Secretary-Treasurer prior to this because of a new Secretary-Treasurer?

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: He started at 5.

CHIEF McNAMARA: My question is, did we ever cut the existing pay?

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Negative as far as anybody knows.

CHIEF McNAMARA: I've been Chief for 28 years and I don't recall it either at the New England Association. I think the same thing that we've been talking of how important the job is and the type of person that has to do this and knowing what Martin put into the job, I just can't comprehend that we are talking about going backwards and cutting and asking somebody to take that responsibility.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Any more discussion?

CHIEF FRANK W. FITZGERALD: [Malden, MA] I think that's ridiculous for an association of fire chiefs to cut the pay of a chief and set that as a precedent.

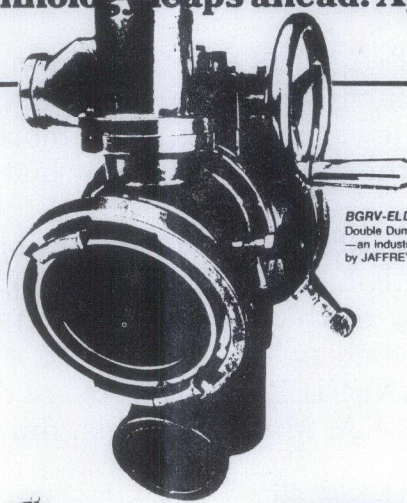

[Applause]

CHIEF FITZGERALD: I know when I became Chief they wanted to cut my pay. Like he says, the responsibilities the first day is as hard as it is the last. Let's not be an Association cutting the pay of an officer of the Association while we're all trying to make as much as we can as fire chiefs. I support the motion. Thank you.

[Applause]

I have a department of 58 full-time firefighters, one full-time secretary, and eight call volunteers.

I am the past Secretary-Treasurer of the Plymouth County Fire Chiefs Association. I am currently the First Vice President of that association. I'm a member of the Plymouth County Committee and the Plymouth County Mutual Aid Committee. On the Massachusetts Fire Chiefs, I've served on the Civil Service Committee for the past six months and we have been revising the reading material for the present captains' exams that has been completed and next next week the chief office exams will be completed. For those of you who are interested there is a handbook that is out the window.

I'm also a past Secretary of the Hingham Firefighters Association and a past Treasurer for the Hingham firefighters local.

Before becoming Chief four years ago, I had my own small business and am computer-orientated. I've been working with computers for the past seven years.

I have a commitment from my wife and children and from the Board of Selectmen of my town to pursue this endeavor. I expect to be a chief for the next five to 10 years. I ask for your support and I thank you very much.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: We will hear a word from Chief Wrobel.

CHIEF PETER J. WROBEL: [West Brookfield, MA] I'm Peter Wrobel from West Brookfield. I've been a fireman for 30 years. We have a call department. I work about eight to 10 hours a week on Fire Department business. I've been Chief for 13 years with hopes for another eight years. I've been Secretary-Treasurer of our local rescue squad for the last five years. I'm the Treasurer of the Worcester area fire chiefs for the last eight years. I'm Treasurer with the Sportsmen Club for 18 years. I've belonged to the Mass. Fire Chiefs for 13 years and the New England Association here for 12 years, and belong to New England Division.

I do have some computer experience and I have my own PC at home. I have worked for the Sherman Oil Company as a serviceman for 26 years and taking an early retirement.

I wanted to run for office in both this organization and the Mass. Fire Chiefs, but due to the time constraints of my regular job I didn't feel I could go ahead and give the time to the job that was necessary. I feel that with the job description that was given, it says 20 hours a week to be used are necessary for the Secretary-Treasurer's job and I feel that anybody that had a commitment to his job otherwise just won't have that kind of time to put into working in the position for this organization. I feel if there is any extra time needed I'll be able to give it and this will be actually my job from retirement. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Thank you, gentlemen.

CHIEF ERNEST FLANDERS: [Montpelier, VT] I find it rather difficult to vote on the Treasurer's position at this time, not knowing any more than the two individuals who have been introduced for a couple of minutes to so state. As far as I know, they probably are both highly qualified.

Didn't the Board of Directors do a screening and did they screen both these individuals? That was a process that was conducted through the years and I guess my main question is did the Board of Directors feel these two individuals were both qualified. If so then I have no problem voting. But if there is not, I find it difficult to put a lot of responsibility on someone's shoulders that we don't really know much about.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Chief Winslow, would you like to address that? Chief Winslow is in charge of the Search Committee which was appointed last year which started having discussions about the Secretary-Treasurer.

CHIEF CARL H. WINSLOW: [Yarmouth, ME] We had a fine year.

[Laughter]

CHIEF WINSLOW: The president of the Association appointed a Search Committee consisting of the directors of each state and myself. It was co-chaired by Don Centracchio from Rhode Island and this would be our report for the work of the Search Committee.

Applications were mailed to all 424 active members of the Association. The committee received four applications for Secretary, all from Massachusetts because the by-laws state they have to be a resident of Massachusetts, I assume. Two of the applicants were not active members so under the by-laws at that time only two of those applications were valid.

The committee received six applications for Treasurer, five from Massachusetts and one from Rhode Island. Two again were not active members as stated under the by-laws at that time.

The Search Committee reviewed all the applications and reported to the Board of Directors, who directed the committee to interview only those that applied for both positions, which narrowed the field to two.

The Search Committee interviewed the two candidates, Chief

Richard Wehter and Chief Peter Wrobel. The Search Committee voted to support the nomination of Chief Richard Wehter.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Any more questions?

CHIEF MICHAEL T. MURPHY: [Wayland, MA] Are both candidates qualified?

CHIEF CARL H. WINSLOW: Both candidates meet the requirements of the position.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Are there any more questions? If not, I will let Chief Jordan explain the voting procedure and what is going to happen.

CHIEF MARTIN J. JORDAN: [Portland, ME] Voting is only open to active fire chiefs and retired honorary members of the Association.

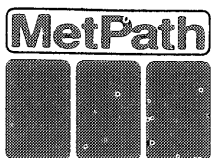

Secondly, you must have your dues paid. You do not have to have a dues card here, but if you haven't paid your dues up until Friday when you came up here or when you came to the Conference here, we have a master list of who can vote. Each of the six directors has the master list of who is eligible to vote. He will check you off in the list. If you're a chief, battalion chief or anything than that, if you haven't paid your dues don't bother to come forward. If your name is not on the list, there will be no discussion, you will not be able to vote.

If you are a retired member and somehow you are deleted from the list because you didn't change your address and have it forwarded to the Secretary and been deleted from the membership, you will have to take care of it later.

The Sergeant-at-Arms will open and inspect the ballot box. You will receive your ballots from your directors. You will then place the name of either Wehter or Wrobel on the ballot and put it in the ballot box.

The President will then select three individuals from the audience here to count the ballots.

CHIEF JAMES M. HALLISEY: [Brockton, MA] Where the executive board has ruled there will be no changes in our constitutional by-laws, whereas in the past the Secretary and Treasurer have been one and the same person, why don't we at this time have nominations for Treasurer so that we can have one ballot, if the same two people are going to go for this where they have been screened and a recommendation has been made, why not vote for the Secretary than go through the nomination procedures for Treasurer and then have another vote? And if you deem it necessary, Mr. President, why not go through your Parliamentarian? But I think, for moving it along in a more simplified manner, have a vote and do it for Secretary-Treasurer.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: I am going to turn this over to the parliamentarian because it will be his decision.

RETIRED CHIEF MERTON S. DYER: [Peterborough, NH] The officers of the organization shall consist of a Secretary and a Treasurer. They are two separate offices. It appears the best procedure to follow is supposed to be followed for the election of the Secretary by a ballot vote. There is nothing to preclude the election of the Treasurer by a voice vote. I think each election should go forward separately. Somebody may want to make a nomination for the other office. I think they should be done separately and I think that's the way to deal with the problem.

CHIEF JAMES M. HALLISEY: [Brockton, MA] I rise to a point of order. I would make it clear whether it's Robert's Rules of Order, Cushing's Rules of Order, Jefferson's, you name it, no matter who you have. Our executive board has, in its wisdom, put off till next year perhaps or some other time the changing from Secretary and Treasurer, which is in our by-laws not to separate them.

So in the interest of moving this meeting along, I see nothing wrong in taking another nomination. You may have two votes if you'd like on Secretary or Treasurer, but we had a screening committee to go through the candidates. And the candidates were, in my understanding, the Secretary/Treasurer. Why is it that we're going now, comma and semicolon and period in the constitution and by-laws to have two separate votes? And now Mr. Parliamentarian and you come across and say we may now have a voice vote if there are more than two people. We haven't had a vote of more than two people anyway. But to divide this when there is a contest between two capable individuals, why not have a nomination now? I don't understand your objection, Mr. Parliamentarian, through Mr. Chairman.

RETIRED CHIEF DYER: We are operating with Robert's Rules of Order. The motion under the constitution, I don't believe it was to separate or to join the office of Secretary and Treasurer, but to remove some of the restrictions on where they would live.

As far as a voice vote, we have had more or less a ballot. The constitution calls for a ballot vote. You vote for Treasurer and if there is a nomination made for Secretary and there's a nomination made for Treasurer and only one nomination and the nominations are closed, the Secretary has one ballot which is a paper ballot for that nominee. If there are more than two names, then it will have to be another ballot vote.

RETIRED CHIEF LAWRENCE LAMSON: [Hamilton, MA] I think we have a parliamentarian qualified to be a parliamentarian for many years and I don't think there's any place for us at this time to question his judgment. Regardless of what rules he makes, it's for the best interest of the Association, I'm sure.

CHIEF JAMES M. HALLISEY: [Brockton, MA] So be it, Mr. Chairman.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: At this time I would like to appoint Otis Wyatt, Gerry Carle, and Ernie Flanders to count the ballots.

If you would go to your state directors to be checked off and they'll give you your ballot. You are voting for the office of Secretary.

[Ballot vote was taken.]

CHIEF JORDAN: Is everyone registered to vote and voted that is eligible? Is there anyone left to vote?

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: If everybody has voted, the ballot box will be closed. Ernie Flanders, Gerry Carle, Otis Wyatt, and Tony Jarvis.

RETIRED CHIEF OTIS C. WYATT, JR.: [Narragansett, RI] Could we ask the directors to take another count as to how the people voted? We have a serious discrepancy here.

Gentlemen, if I could have your attention, speaking for the tellers of Chief Carle, Chief Flanders, and myself, we have counted the ballots and we've asked the director to count the number of people that received ballots and we have two more ballots than people who received them, which makes for a mathematical problem. Just so you know, we have more votes than what people were checked off as having the ballots of the votes. I think you should know because the difference of those two votes is not significant in the count.

Chief Wehter 78, and Chief Wrobel 10.

Now you know the discrepancy and I think it would be proper, through the parliamentarian, that there be something to accept the ballot as it is or you do it over again. I just have to feel concerned that everybody was checked off as they should have been and we have more ballots than were checked. If we had less it wouldn't matter, but it's the other way around and that's not right.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: We'll hear from Chief Wrobel.

CHIEF PETER J. WROBEL: [West Brookfield, MA] Mr. President, I would like to turn my votes over to Dick Wehter and make it a unanimous decision. But before I do that, I would like to say that the way the announcements were made and our qualifications and who was going to be nominated and stuff like that, I was not notified of the decision or anything about it. Only through the grapevine. I asked questions around and nobody was able to tell me anything. But I think, after hearing of what some of the other directors were doing, I think I was treated unfairly. I'm a good sport and I will let it go. I will turn my votes over to Dick Wehter.

[Applause. Chief Wrobel and Chief Wehter shook hands.]

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: There is still a motion to cast one ballot.

CHIEF BRENT T. LEMIRE: [Litchfield, NH] I make a motion that the Secretary cast one ballot for Dick Wehter as Secretary-Treasurer.

CHIEF JAMES N. RUSSO: [Hull, MA] Seconded.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: The motion is that the Secretary cast one ballot for Chief Wehter. Any discussion on the motion.

All those in favor of the motion raise your hand.

[Hands were raised.]

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Those opposed?

[Hands were raised.]

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Carried.

I apologize to you, Chief Wrobel, because I personally didn't know you hadn't been told and I didn't know Dick Wehter had been told either. I am apologizing for the whole board and I have no idea and you are talking of the board being underhanded, however you said it and I have no concept of that. I do apologize.

CHIEF PETER J. WROBEL: I don't know whether there was anything underhanded, but the information was passed out before I knew about it. I don't know if Dick knew about it or not, but I heard out in the lot it was pretty cut and dried that they

[Applause]

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Now the office of Treasurer.

Nominations are open.

CHIEF TIMOTHY P. TRAVERS: [Whitman, MA] I would like to place the name of Richard K. Wehter from Hingham, Massachusetts, nominated for Treasurer.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Do we have a second?

CHIEF JAMES N. RUSSO: [Hull, MA] I second that.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Are there any other nominations for Treasurer?

RETIRED CHIEF ROBERT D. TEECE: [Randolph, MA] I move the nomination be closed and the Secretary cast one ballot for the office of Treasurer.

CHIEF of East Bridgewater, MA: I second that.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Nomination made and seconded that the Secretary cast one ballot for Chief Wehter as Treasurer.

Any discussion on the motion?

If not, all those in favor raise your hand.

tion is on its way. I look at this as the new New England Association of Fire Chiefs now. The Association now gets in the big leagues and becomes a true conference and exposition organization next year. We broke the contract with Sturbridge. we were tentatively scheduled to be here next year and Sturbridge let us out and thanked us for the business in the past four years.

The best Royal Trade Plaza and Exposition Center in Marlboro right off Route 20 is coming up. A lot of things will change. The outlook, the way things are going will change drastically next year. You'll be moving in on a Friday and the conference will be open all day on Saturday, Sunday, and Monday. And your meeting will be on Monday afternoon and the banquet on Monday night and checking out Tuesday.

We are moving to a very large exposition center and there is a portion of our outside exhibits and small pieces of apparatus and ambulances will be inside. We chose this because of the growing pains we are having. We are turning exhibitors away. They are crunched outside.

We are going to the Springfield Civic Center in '93 and '94. We felt we needed a jumping stone in between '94 and '95. From the small scale here to that larger scale. A quick itinerary, Friday night Memorial Service and going to a much larger church. Saturday night we'll be going back to our theme night again, which will be a dinner and Murder She Wrote in a place called White Cliffs. We will be bused down to that for a Murder She Wrote type dinner entertainment. Exhibits will be open all day Sunday. Sunday night will be a Chiefs Only vendor night thing in the exhibit hall where admission is by pre-registrants. One day passes will not be allowed. Blue tags, strictly chiefs to get in at 4:30 to 6 p.m. Sunday night to get in and mingle one-to-one, without the large crowds you experience now. Sunday night back to entertainment. And then whatever is chosen. And Monday night the banquet as usual.

So things are rolling for '94 and '95 with a big jump to the Springfield Civic Center.

CHIEF SYDNEY F. THURSTON: [Waterbury Center, VT]
With the wives?

CHIEF JORDAN: With the wives, of course.

Now, up into the planning at the Springfield Civic Center, everything we have in the Conference will be inside. we are lucky and having one catastrophe like that can wipe us out because your fixed cost is still there. If the attendees are down the exhibitors have to keep their trucks outside and nobody is looking at them. It can be disastrous.

So by hitting the targets and setting the goals that I did five years ago and getting to the Civic Center, everything is going to be inside. It's going to be a monumental amount of work. Let's work big time.

So right now after talking to vendors and meeting them, we're now up and running. It's on its way and nothing is going to stop us now. My goal has always been the New England Chiefs Convention with six states to be with New York as one also to be premier and the quality to the New York show and we have accomplished that.

One last thing we have. We have decided and we have upped the Conference one week as we did with this. We moved this Conference up because the 4th of July would have conflicted with our Conference if we had it next weekend. Marlboro and Springfield have those dates open so we have voted to move our dates up one week. We will now always follow the New York show. New York gets out Tuesday and Wednesday. The vendors and 17 pieces of apparatus outside because they got out of New York and they drive down here and the vendors are very pleased with that. What you see now, you have manufacturers here instead of just vendors and the manufacturers are coming direct.

The New England Chiefs Association is now something to be reckoned with and all should be proud of those accomplishments and be proud of that. Thank you.

[Applause]

CHIEF CHARLES MAURAS: [Marblehead, MA] As chairman of the Exhibit Committee what I'd like to say --

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Come up to the mike. Before he says it, a couple of exhibitors from the Exhibitors Association told me last week when we got here that I think we rank twelfth in the United States of fire exhibit shows that there are around now and this orientation here. That's a long way we've come.

CHIEF MAURAS: I don't have a lot to say. I've worked hard with a lot of the vendors the past few years to build this up. I think when I took over, approximately the mailing list was just 120 names and it's up over 300 vendors that I mail out. I think I have worked hard at getting the vendors here. What we have got to work on is getting the attendees here right now working with the Vendors Association. I went to their first meeting the first time I was invited to their meeting and they have always come to the directors meeting so I went to their meeting. I had quite a bit to say to them, that I am looking for their help and without their help we won't exist.

So what I am going to say is work on publicity and get this out to national publications. I am looking for help. All of you are a little more articulate about writing than myself. What I am going to do is rely on is the Boston people are going to get some releases together to advertise this show because there's a lot of members out there that will want to attend this show. So this is part of our growing. If I get the vendors there and if they don't have the people there, they are not wanting to come back. So I am going to need help. If everybody goes back and gets three, four, five chiefs, let's make it a show worth coming to. Thanks.

[Applause]

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Mr. Secretary, do we have any other unfinished business?

CHIEF JORDAN: No.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Does anyone have any unfinished business they would like to bring back?

DEPUTY CHIEF EDGAR DUPONT: [Mannville, RI] I would like to know if I can address the Auditing Committee. I've only been elevated to the rank of Chief in the past month-and-a-half so I am not on anybody's list and I am still a Deputy Chief. I would like to know if I can address a question to the auditors. There seems to be a discrepancy to the date they closed out the audit. I think he mentioned the audit was closed on the 29th of the month.

FROM THE FLOOR: The 29th.

DEPUTY CHIEF DUPONT: The 22nd. I picked the date out.

RETIRED CHIEF GERARD A. CARLE: [Dracut, MA] Is it proper at this time to make a comment?

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: I think so.

RETIRED CHIEF CARLE: If I may, Mr. President, with your indulgence and with the officers, last year at the meeting I had a lot of things to say and a lot of things happened through the year. I can say this truthfully and honestly in the open here to everybody at the meeting that you know what went on. And Marty and I said words and things happened, whatever, right. Marty and are will not leave here, Marty would not. We got together Sunday and we had a good talk and everything is straightened out, Marty, isn't it?

CHIEF JORDAN: Yes.

RETIRED CHIEF CARLE: I ask you people to give a rising vote of thanks to Marty for what he has done in the past and he will always work for the good of the Association.

[Standing ovation.]

CHIEF MARTIN J. JORDAN: Thank you very much. Again, there's no greater compliment than coming from your peers that I've enjoyed serving. The bottom line for me is a little zealously I took this thing and I thought it was minor, no higher than a person could get from a drug, but when I go out to the registration and I see throngs of people, and all the bullshit for the year was worth it. And the things that are passing, whatever, it's been worth it and I'm glad I had the opportunity and to serve you. I've enjoyed it, thanks.

[Applause]

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Thank you very much, Marty. If you have any new business?

CHIEF FREDERICK STANLEY: [Hope Valley, RI] I would like to express my sincere thanks to the board and the gentleman up-front of you, every one of you. The cooperation, the extension you put out to the New England Division, we greatly appreciate it and I thank you very much for the cooperation we've had all through this Conference. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Thank you, Fred.

[Applause]

CHIEF MICHAEL T. MURPHY: [Wayland, MA] A concern of mine and a concern of many of the people I've spoken to is the type of fire protection that we had here at the hotel. There's a strong need right now from the fire service, who are the leaders in this, and from the federal government to not only have smoke detectors in the hotel rooms, which we do not have in the old section, but also now the federal requirement is nobody stay at a hotel, that is a federal worker, unless that hotel is fully equipped with a properly installed sprinkler system.

We had this discussion with the Massachusetts caucus and we unanimously agreed -- and I intend to make this in the form of a motion right now -- that effective in 1994, this organization does not stay at any hotel unless it has a fully and properly installed fire alarm system and a properly installed sprinkler system. I make this as a motion.

The New England Division of the I.A.F.C. booth with Chief John O'Bier, Secretary/Treasurer; Chief Fred Stanley, President; and Director Chief Otis C. Wyatt. Thanks for your support guys. See you in Newport!!

CHIEF JOHN P. JENKINS: [West Barnstable, MA] I second it.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: On for discussion.

CHIEF JOHN FLAHERTY: [West Springfield, MA] The Board of Directors took a vote at the meeting today to do just that so fine.

CHIEF CHARLES F. MAURIS: [Marblehead, MA] I would like to ask is the Chief here from Springfield? I believe that place is and I just didn't want to see us as I think we have to be very careful in breaking the contract.

CHIEF JOHN P. JENKINS: [West Barnstable, MA] It is.

CHIEF MAURIS: I think it is.

CHIEF JENKINS: He said it is.

CHIEF JORDAN: It will have to be next because we have signed contracts for three years ahead. Springfield, I'm sure it comes to the high-rise legislation in Massachusetts and there is no problem. But he's right on the contract. We have guarantees. If all of a sudden we pulled out from Springfield, it would be thousands and thousands in penalties so the directors have made that motion and voted on it that we are going to do that.

CHIEF MURPHY: In 1996 I would still like to vote.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Will the seconder accept the amendment to 1996?

CHIEF JENKINS: Sure.

FROM THE FLOOR: I second it.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: It's already been seconded. Any other discussion on the motion?

All those in favor of the motion raise your hands.

[Hands raised]

Those opposed?

Motion is carried.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Mr. Nunes has a couple of words to say.

CHIEF ROBERT NUNES: [Chicopee, MA] Mr. President, I'd like to make a motion that we donate $300 to the New England Division for their hospitality room in Anaheim, California.

CHIEF JOHN F. FLAHERTY: [West Springfield, MA] Second.

President Wendall Mansfield receives Presidents ring from incoming President Carl H. Winslow.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Motion is made by Robert Nunes and seconded by John Flaherty that this Association make a donation to the New England Division of the Hospitality Division of Anaheim.

Any discussion?

All those in favor raise your hands.

[Hands raised]

Opposed?

Carried.

New business. Or is there any other information?

CHIEF MARTIN J. JORDAN: On new business, the last part we had was the announcement of the scholarship winners this year. We started that in the memorial of Chief James Grote when Chief Landry was president. Tamera Palmer from Vermont and Patricia Wehter from Massachusetts.

[Applause]

CHIEF ROBERT NUNES: [Chicopee, MA] What a fix, one day in office!

CHIEF MARTIN J. JORDAN: We've had close to 30 applicants this year. The word is out and we've had real stiff competition. And the two girls who got it justly deserve it.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: And the people from Vermont were honored for two years in a row that we have had a recipient of this.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: All the new officers will be sworn in at the banquet tonight.

Any other new business or any other business?

CHIEF CARL H. WINSLOW:[Yarmouth, ME] Mr. President, Wendall, on behalf of the Association for the fine job you have done as president and all the other offices you have served in in getting to be president of this Association, at this time I would like to present you with the ring of the New England Association. Congratulations for a job well done.

[Standing ovation.]

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Thank you very much, Carl, and the Association. My biggest problem is when I get to speaking some of my words get mixed up, but if I know what I am talking about up here then it spills right out of me like water out of a faucet. It doesn't always happen but most of the time I can get it straightened out. Thank you very much and it's been a pleasure to serve.

Annual Banquet

DEPUTY FIRE CHIEF RAY E. DAVISON: [Vergennes, VT] Ladies and gentlemen, will you please rise at this time so we can welcome our officers and directors of the New England Association of Fire Chiefs to the 70th Annual Banquet. Will the Sergeant-at-Arms please escort the officers and guests to their seats.

[The orchestra played Hail to the Chief as the procession marched in to a standing ovation.]

DEPUTY FIRE CHIEF DAVISON: Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. I'm Deputy Chief Ray E. Davison. It's a real pleasure and honor to serve as your Master of Ceremonies this evening. I take great pride in being a member of this great organization and being a 35-year member of the great fraternity, the fire service, of which we all belong. A most cordial welcome to all of you.

Please permit me to introduce the head table. To my far right the Reverend Charles Chalk, Chaplain of the New England Fire Chiefs Association from Merrimack, New Hampshire. Our Host Chief, Chief Leonard Senecal and his wife Cindy. The Second Vice President Robert Nunes and his wife Sandy. First Vice President Chief Carl Winslow and his wife Pat.

To my far left the Reverend Stephen Foley, Reverend of the New England Fire Chiefs. Martin Jordan and his wife Amelia. Mr. Ted Teffner and his wife Elizabeth, selectman from the Town of Stowe, where our president resides. And of course our most important guest here tonight is the president of our Association, Chief Wendall Mansfield and his wife Phyllis.

to win some money? The famous Reverend Father Foley will pick the first ticket for the $500.

E.D. Sherman, 50 Congress Street, Boston, Mass., No. 141.

The second prize is $300. Kim Kerr, 27 Hickory Hill, Simsbury, Connecticut, 1058.

And third and that is $100, Marcel Dumont, 108 Slocum Road, North Dartmouth, Mass., 9020.

[The banquet commenced.]

DEPUTY CHIEF DAVISON: We hope that you all enjoyed the nice meal that you've had and at this point in time I don't believe the orchestra is around but I would like to recognize the Celebration orchestra at this time. If they are within hearing distance, let's give them a nice hand because of their nice services.

[Applause]

DEPUTY CHIEF DAVISON: We'd like to introduce some of the past presidents who are here. And if they are, if they will stand when we call their names.

[Applause after each name was called.]

Chief and Mrs. Ernest Flanders from Montpelier. Ernie.

Chief and Mrs. Edward Borowiec.

Chief and Mrs. Robert Butters.

Chief and Mrs. Merton Dyer -- are they here?

Chief and Mrs. James Rulman.

Chief and Mrs. Charles Hall.

And Chief and Mrs. Robert Teese.

I would also like to introduce from the International Association of Fire Chiefs Gerry Carle, who has been our past president. Gerry was here I know today and Gerry, are you here tonight?

[Retired Chief Carle stood to applause.]

Bill Healey, last year's president, and Marian. The Healeys.

[Applause]

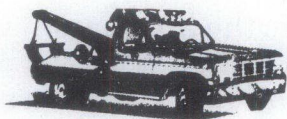

DEPUTY CHIEF DAVISON: The only reason that Wendall has been able to do a good job is because he has a good assistant Chief at home so we would like to introduce Assistant Chief Gene Touchette, who is running the camera there, and his wife.

[Applause]

DEPUTY CHIEF DAVISON: At this point in time we'd like to introduce our host Chief again, who will give us a welcome here this evening. Chief Leonard Senecal. Chief Senecal.

[Applause]

CHIEF LEONARD E. SENECALE: [Sturbridge, MA] Thank you very much. Chiefs, wives, honored guests, I'd like to take this opportunity to say thank you for four enjoyable years of Conferences. This has been a memorable experience for me and my wife. We've had a great time meeting new people and learning new things. It has been our pleasure to share our quaint town with you. And I hope that you leave holding fond memories.

I wish you a pleasant evening and may all of you have a safe year through these trying times. May we all meet again next year. Thank you very much. Thanks.

[Applause]

DEPUTY CHIEF DAVISON: Thank you very much, Chief Senecal.

The guest speaker this evening is a person who many of us have known over the years from Vermont. We all know him being a person who has run for governor ever since 1962. We note today he has his poster or barn up and that he's running again this year. But after losing each election, Danny says he starts running again the next day just as those who got elected. Again, the next day he's right out there with all of the vote-getting people.

Danny is known as an outstanding person in his field of Vermont politics, and some history. He's done some writing and been on TV and everything, but we must say tonight that the New England Association of Fire Chiefs just does not endorse candidates. However, usually just the winners of an election get attention but not tonight because it's my obligation to introduce a loser.

Here to complete the introduction, please welcome Danny Gore from Avery's Gore, Danny Gore, Representative Danny Gore.

MR. DURWOOD GORE: Good evening, my name is Durwood Gore and I'm the son of Danny Gore, who's been running for governor from the State of Vermont since 1962. He also had wise votes reported by scanner.

This is my mother Delphine, you know, the consistent fans of Danny Gore.

breeding, a horrible voice, and a vulgar manner. tonight you will see a popular politician.

[Laughter]

MR. DURWOOD GORE: You may be wondering why we came down to Massachusetts, the Vermont election laws being what they are. If you'd be willing to come up for a couple of weekends in November, we'd appreciate your vote.

[Laughter]

MR. DURWOOD GORE: Or if you like us to come south for a couple of years, you can vote for us here as well.

Right now we'd like to do a few campaign songs. Some are original and some aren't. You should be able to tell which are which. The first one needs no explanation. If you watch C-Span and watch Congress vote for a while and at a Socialist mayor in our largest city in the state, that's with a small "s", he's now that little eye at the very bottom of the vote, Bernie Sanders.

[Delphine and Durwood Gore sang:]

Change your clothes and comb your hair, cheer up, Danny's almost here. Governor Gore has a very nice ring. If you don't vote for Danny we'll continue to sing.

[Laughter]

[Delphine and Durwood sang:]

Hang up the flag and repent your sin, let a loser win. Bernie's finally made it and Bush follows wrong for a stable Vermont. Gore's the one.

[Applause]

MR. DURWOOD GORE: If you haven't had a campaign experience so far this year, please join us tonight to get warmed up for whatever candidates you support. For you who don't know where Avery's Gore is, we're from Avery's Gore East, which is not to be confused with Avery's Gore West. And we have a lot of endangered species up there besides my dad.

[Laughter]

MR. DURWOOD GORE: We have the last of the egg-laying woodchucks and suckers.

[Laughter]

MR. DURWOOD GORE: We also promise that we won't yell movie in a crowded firehouse.

[Laughter and applause]

MR. DURWOOD GORE: And there's one more thing: Would you please be kind to my dad, he's out of his gourd tonight.

MR. DURWOOD GORE: Ladies and gentlemen, the next governor for the State of Vermont, Representative Danny Gore.

[Applause]

REPRESENTATIVE DANNY GORE: You've never seen one. You didn't come to see one. You don't want to see one. Too late. You are looking at one, a native-born Vermonter. That means born on Vermont soil without a doctor present, Representative Danny Gore, Northeast Kingdom, elected to the House. They cut my seat and I ain't been the same since. [Laughter]

Now I'm down here in Massachusetts. Some of you may not be familiar with Vermont and how it fits into New England. I got to tell you I used to call this a plaque, but we've had so much advancement in education that I now call it a visual aid. [Laughter]

Now, we have gone to Connecticut. I got to tell you, three years ago I was up in New Hampshire talking to the septic control people there. [Laughter]

There was a lot of folks up in Connecticut and let me tell you, they didn't like what we were sending down the river. [Laughter]

And I said to them, "I understand there's a lot of faucets to that pollution problem, but you got to realize I don't get excited. We live upstream." [Laughter]

This is Massachusetts here. In Vermont we took down them advertising signs so we could see the cows. Up in Albany, Vermont the Selectmen took down all the signs and there was a fellow from Massachusetts. He came in the store. "I've been lost in Vermont for three days. When are you hicks going to get with it and put up some signs? You come to Massachusetts, we got signs."

"I said, "Mister, I'd rather be lost in Vermont than know where I am in Massachusetts." [Laughter and Applause.]

This is New Hampshire over here. As I say, we're near but not close. [Laughter]

And I have to remind folks, the low water mark of the Connecticut River is the most boundary, sure. I said, "Get all them septic systems out of the river and it would dry up Vermont and own New Hampshire." [Laughter]

Besides, I didn't want it. See this plate. It says, "Live Free or Die.” I said, “O.K., you liberals over there, live free or die. you come to Vermont, you are going to work or die. [Laughter]

This is New York. I love New York. I love New York. I’m so sick of that. [Laughter]

And I was over speaking in New York. Just as soon as I got out of the car a lady come up to me, “I love you, Danny, I love you, Danny, I love you, Danny.”

“Lady, that proves love is blind.” [Laughter]

And don’t forget, Vermont is the second largest New England state. Sure, Carl Winslow, take some of those hoses out and we’d be first. [Laughter]

We come pretty near a whole curtain. We got Lake Champlain. Let me tell you, I don’t know how it is where you’re from, if you are from a rural area nobody pays attention. Now, up there they have Lake Champlain. They say they have a monster in it. The Vermont legislature to protect. I live halfway to the North Pole right up there, sure. The St. Lawrence water goes north. The Connecticut water goes south. It’s a watershed. I’m right at the ridge pole.

Now the thing is, St. Regis paper comes and owns it. They cut down so much pulp. Could I get anything out of the legislature? No. I want a sucker committee over there.

Now this is not to scale. And it’s not an actual photo, but this is one of them suckers. look at it. See the sunburn on that sucker? [Laughter]

Go ahead and laugh. A lot of us suckers are going to get burned. [Laughter]

You don’t agree with me, read my lip. [Laughter]

There is Canada up there. Brian Mulroney, a Conservative, came up to Kennebunkport. President Bush went fishing at the taxpayer’s expense. Didn’t catch anything. we’re going to have free trade. we took him down 200 years ago and we call it smuggling. [Laughter]

But wherever I go people get after me, people say, “Who gives it to you when you go out-of-state? Are they kind?”

I say, “Sure, who gives, gives it, natives give it, not flatlanders. No, no, natives.”

It was just three years ago I was speaking and I was telling -- I don’t want to embarrass anybody -- but this is a native in Vermont. So I’ll just give you a nice initialism, Sidney Thurston. [Laughter]

Now, he said, "Danny, the State of Vermont looks like a pair of pants and I ain't got to tell you where you're located." [Laughter]

Now, they say we're depressed up in Avery's Gore. That comes out of Washington, a depressed area. Anything comes out of Washington can depress you. We may be depressed up there, but we can still go to the dump without an appointment. [Laughter]

You can still get 2 x 4 six inches wide. [Laughter]

People say today you'll never get elected governor in any state because what is it today, the image is the message. Doesn't matter any more what you say. It's how you look on television. You'll never become governor wearing old clothes.

I always say, "We always wear old clothes so we can afford new ones." [Laughter]

Some young people, you know, make fun once in a while. Don't talk too good. Sort of rural. And I have to remind young folks that breakdancing started in the Gore. Sure. You might even call it dirty dancing. [Laughter]

But they say, you know, you people up there, you don't even have fast food up there. No fast food. Fast food to us is a rabbit hunting. [Laughter]

Give anybody you have to send them to a stress plan. Sure. We got politicians going for stress management. And the only stress management I remember as a kid is when my dad told me to cut my fingernails. [Laughter]

If I was really going to get elected, you know what I would have done? I would have come here early and got papers passed out around and find out what the New England Fire Chiefs want to hear. I've been back there reading what you want to hear. I come in and tell you what you want to hear. That guy should be governor of Vermont. Of course, I go see another group that they may want to hear what you don't want to hear. And when I get enough groups together, you get elected. That's called demographics. [Laughter]

"Well," I said, "you didn't even try for the yuppy vote. A yuppy to us is somebody who don't know much and who keeps agreeing with you, agreeing with you. [Laughter]

And the preppies. You have to get the preppies. They have the money. We had a rich neighbor. The kid had nothing to do. We let him wash the cow bags. We called him a preppe. [Laughter]

Baby boomers. Small thunder showers. [Laughter]

They got a new one. i hate to mention it. It was on children's television so I guess it's all right. Double income, no kids. I'm glad you said it.

I remember we had a couple of young fellows ringing the church bell, mooning the church picnic in the park. They were nothing but a couple of dates because I didn't think they were old enough to vote.[Laughter]

It's how they look today, the image. Ted Kennedy stopped eating ice cream before each election. He stopped a little early this year. We've got politicians doing aerobics. They put Jane Fonda right in that machine and they call it electrifying aerobics. I can remember when Grammie Zelda was throwing. [Laughter]

And another thing today, I got burnout. Burnout. Can't do that any more. I'll burn out.

A man come up at noon and said, "I can't mow any more, I'm all burn-out." Moe said, "I turned his wig." [Laughter]

And I give him one of those 16-ounce gumption cocktails. That's equal parts of kerosene, castor oil, and red liniment. That fired him up and sent him out and kept him smiling.

You may wonder why I'm here. I got invited. [Laughter]

I got a phone call from a fellow I had. His name is Wendall Mansfield. I think his name was on the phone. He went on something fierce, the Fire Chiefs of New England. Now, they're outstanding that he went on. He wanted somebody outstanding in the field to speak to them. He just didn't want anybody. I didn't tell him I just come in to answer the phone. [Laughter]

But we got a lot of politicians up our way, outstanding in the field with a piece of rope and they don't know whether they found the rope or lost the horse. [Laughter]

And they keep getting re-elected. He was concerned. He said, "Fire chiefs, they could do one thing. They marry smart, educated women so the wives are going to be there."

I said, "Hey, I don't look down on anybody just because they got an education." [Laughter]

We got a Vice President of the United States that got an education through no fault of his own. [Laughter and applause]

But he was concerned. Evidently the fellow, I don't know if he's still here, Don Centraccio, something like that, and evidently he sort of put it to Wendall. "Sometimes," Wendall says,

“if you go down there and don’t give a message, Don will give me one.”

I said, “Tell Son everywhere I go in state, out-of-state, big groups, little groups, everywhere I’ve ever been, they’ve got my message. I know this because I’ve never been asked back to speak anywhere. [Laughter]

Now I have been running for governor of the State of Vermont since 1962. I always got these slogans and the interesting thing of my campaign slogan seems to be pretty popular in every state I’ve been and I’ve been over in Canada a couple of times. That’s my best credentials. And they’ve stolen from the savings and loan. Your great-great-grandchildren will pay for that. Think about it. [Laughter]

There’s a sign says “Get even.”

There was the Iran-Contra hearings investigating them again. Sure. Ollie North there. Ollie, well, we figured quite early magnetic north ain’t always true north. [Laughter]

Let me tell you something. What an example. He walked on three felonies, three felonies, and he’s not going to spend one day in jail and he gets $25,000 a speech. $25,000 a speech. Ever since I read that I’ve been out breaking windows. [Laughter]

Get even to a politician.

If you still don’t know who I am, you probably thought Jesse Jackson thought of that first. [Holding up a sign]

I got a guy Monte Perkins and we call him Money Peak. I sent this down to Andrew’s basement. They was going to do that big budget. The IOU stops here.

Some of you have folks come up to Vermont and some of you Vermonters say, “I’m a native and they put a hose to you and they get a little uppity.” Just behind him about this fellow that came from Connecticut [Holding up a sign].

Ethan Allen was an out-of-stater. He was also a land developer. I thought I might have a few sportsmen. they might get out and hunt. [Holding up sign]. And it ain’t easy running the favorite son of a Gore.

Now, I’m going to talk to you tonight on the issue of newspapers. I don’t know how it is here. That local paper up there, I was talking issues. I got his paper, you got his. I went down to the editor and “Hey, that’s nothing like I said. those issues are nothing like I said. Now I want that story retracted.” Did you ever try to get an editor to retract a story? Try it. It’s just as if the hired man comes in at noon and you say to him, "You've been strutting in the wrong field all morning. Now go down and pick it up." [Laughter]

He won't. He probably can't but if he could the odor would still be there. [Laughter]

This is a World War I surplus feed bag. This is a feed bag. It's the grain for the horses in the front of the horse. The front of the horse. I just want you to know which end.

Always in New Hampshire. I can't get over what has happened in politics since 1988. It all started with Gary Hart. You don't remember that Hart, you know, the fellow burned on hot Rice there. I don't know whether it was instant or three minutes. [Laughter]

But the thing is and what happens this year, presidential, a candidate come up to enough sure Bill Clinton. First Gennifer Flowers is asking about the affair. Well, he said he just buzzed Flowers a few times and she claims he pollinated. [Laughter]

You may say some people get ugly. What does that have to do with politics? In Vermont you're running in the State of Vermont. That happens at that level. Sure. Ever since those episodes, Mrs. Gore makes me wear suspenders and a belt. [Laughter]

She says that will make me think twice. [Laughter and applause]

And the other thing is they can come right up to you now. Sure. They can say, "Did you ever commit adultery?" They can ask that now. They said to me, "Danny, did you ever commit adultery?"

I said, "I can't remember, I've been eating jelly beans." [Laughter]

Look at this, a principle. This is New Hampshire principles. Sure. With all the technology of going to the moon and everything else, we haven't advanced from the outhouse, have we? [Laughter]

But cultures are changing. We're having trouble in Vermont. The rainbow gathering, for those of you who are following the newspapers, people come from the rainbow family. We had a summer resident that came to Vermont -- and I am just trying to show you the rural things are changing. Now, my Cousin Castor took this down. Now, I got to tell you, Cousin Castor, they call him simple. But what is simplicity? The essence of genius or the substance of ignorance. That's why we have critics. Well, we know Cousin came into this world with very few adjustments. Not much dust on his chalk line. [Laughter]

Some say he didn't grow up on the farm, he just came of age. [Laughter]

More button holes than buttons. [Laughter]

Others say that God forgot to put a bubble in his level. [Laughter]

Let me tell you, if you pay attention sometimes to those folks that you think don't know of, they may be saying more important things than you are listening to right now. [Laughter]

This is it. I'm just going to read it and I hope you understand it. There's a culture clash here. Now, this is a lady who was a summer resident. This is called, "Happy New Year everybody, free wheelers testimony."

Mrs. Striker, a summer resident, held a meditation and self-improvement seminar at the Town Hall. Her purpose was to help local folks achieve inner happiness. She's added to the meetings by giving personal testimony. Mrs. Striker said, "My search for peace has taken me through the depths of alcohol, drugs, and sex to the university to study the world's 10 religions and to live alone on the top of the Canadian Rockies to join a community in Nebraska and become a vegetarian. I have had three weddings and three divorces. Finally I was in a small, wooden hut in a cold, barren peak in Tibet. An ancient man asked, 'Is happiness inside or outside' I at last looked inside and for the first time found happiness in myself. Tuned in to myself. And to stay healthy I jog three miles a day."

Mrs. Striker continued, "I have opened up my personal life to you to encourage each of you also now to take that first step to expand yourselves to reach in and reach out for happiness."

A freewheeler had wandered in to see why the Town Hall lights were on and perhaps catch a ride home. Feeling the strength of hard cider, he strode forward. "Lost my teeth and the old lady kicked me out and had to go and stay in a hunting camp and lived on salt pork and 'coons and johnnycake. One day the fire went out and I tried to keep warm by pissing in bed. Ladies, it don't work no matter what the folks tell you. I had to get up and tried to start a fire with green wet wood. There in my long, wet union suit, just as cold inside as outside. I thought, 'There just ain't no damn happiness in this world.' As soon as that sunk in, I was happy for the first time in my life. I don't jog 'cause I don't want to die healthy. Lady, this year will be the best year we had. You would make me happy if you give me a lift to the Bob Wynn Hill turn." [Laughter]

People ask me where to go and "You a John Bircher?" Once in a while I say yes. But I do agree with the John Birch Society that we should get sex out of the classroom and back of the barn where it always was. [Laughter]

Hey, you can have a big problem. They were teaching in sex education, they call it Human Relations. That fools everybody. You can have a big problem and a small school.

Aldrich, my political adviser, he's my Kissinger. I said, "You better get down there to some meeting. You better get down there." And it was some meeting. A lady got up and said, "I don't want any teaching my kid about sex. I teach my own kids about sex. I had six children and I guess I know about sex."

"Lady, I got an uncle. He had six car accidents. we still don't think he can drive." [Laughter and applause]

But Vermont is changing. Vermont is changing. We got plywood cows in the stalls. Sure. Seen 'em. Seen 'em.

Age is a very serious problem and you know they talk about condoms and you will have that up in Vermont. we have to get a customer for that because we ran an ad up there. The Health Department says, "Don't forget your rubbers." Right on television. It's the older folks, you know, 'cause we remember when you left them in the hall. [Laughter]

There's another thing, you know. People call it condoms. There we do a lot of home canning. Oh, yeah. Some young fellow says rubbers will protect you. He picks up a handful of Mom's jars, picks up a handful and thinks he's going to be safe. [Laughter]

I got to thinking too, you know. I know it's a problem. Think about when I used to come in from milking by hand way back then and turned on the radio and hear Jack Benny eats a little popcorn. Let's just think of the thing they would have back then and out of the past comes the thundering hoof beats of the great Silver with condoms. "Ho, Kemo Sabe, just say no." [Laughter]

We gave our legislature the pay raise. We gave them in Washington a pay raise. Giving those guys a pay raise makes as much sense as throwing cold water on a neutered cow.

There was these sperm banks. Sure. Nobel Prize winners. It says here that social attitudes are changing. The sperm bank reports very healthy woman suing the sperm bank. She got sperm with a germ. [Laughter]

You know, I understand night deposit penalties and early withdrawals. [Laughter]

But how would you hold one up? Sterilize it in an ice chest. And the women aren't going to sit still for this. What happens to the institution of marriage, just go down and open a joint account. And don't forget we have interstate banking now. [Laughter]

Talk about liquid assets. [Laughter]

All right. I do want to be governor of the State of Vermont. I come down here. I probably won't take Connecticut because Lowell Wiecker got that big award for courage. [Laughter]

But the thing is I want to say to you, we bypass more than we catch up to. In the Gore I say we've had progress because we hate change. [Laughter]

As a governor, I'd ask you to bite the bullet before you are wounded. [Laughter]

We don't make anybody absolute. We go talk to them. They need education. One thing they do is raise the flag high enough so a politician can't hide behind it.

A prayer, religion has no place in politics. Up there we say, "You pray your way, I'll pray mine." Let's not interfere with each other. The problem we have today is we argue religion so much that we don't have time to practice. Spare the rod and you do spoil the child, but it's a fishing rod. Take them young folks out there fishing. Let me hear some good rock music, clear, crystal waters over the boulders at the head of the pool. And it's not my country right or wrong. We've got to continue to have a great country, therefore, we must always try to right the wrongs.

You come to the Gore and ask to see Canadian Club. You ain't going to get Canadian Club, you are going to get a few words about Cal Coolidge. Cal said, "Do a day's work and tell the truth." I say either one of them can make you sweat. [Laughter]

But we still believe that pops should be under the bed at the end of the rainbow. Hash is something you have after a boiled dinner. And if you are going for a fix, have a cat with you. [Laughter]

But you are free in jail in this country than you're out of jail in many others. It is a great country. And nobody can guarantee you a risk-free society. No institution, no government. You people take risks every day as part of your life. Nobody can say you aren't going to have a risk involved. Every time you answer an alarm. No guarantees. No success without a risk. You never heard of a successful blacksmith shoeing dead horses: [Laughter]

And I'm sick. I love a rock. I love this kindness is what I have been running on because you can be kind to folks you don't like and it will make the day. We won't burn a cross on somebody's lawn, even if we didn't like them. We were kind. Those kinds.

I started running in 1962. I give this symbol [Making a V sign.] Everybody knew what it stood for. But today so few people remember the one-room school. [Laughter]

If she saw you in time you could have a sit-in. You could have a peace and don't forget some guys really had to go. [Holding up two fingers] [Laughter]

But we should have peace and we shouldn't vote for any candidate at any level of government that doesn't have human dignity for all people and peace at the top of the agenda. [Dancing]

"You're a grand old flag. You're a high-flying flag."

This land is your land. Thank you.

DEPUTY CHIEF DAVISON: Danny Gore for Governor. [Applause]

REPRESENTATIVE DANNY GORE: You probably guessed. One last thing of Cousin Castor. All across this great big country spittoons were in every legislative house. I got this out of Montpelier. I don't know what they did with the money. What does Cousin Castor say about it? At least when spittoons adorned the legislative house, legislators displayed some coordination between brain and mouth. [Laughter and applause]

DEPUTY CHIEF DAVISON: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE DANNY GORE: You've been kind to me and I would leave you with two words from Cousin Castor telling funny stores.

MR. DURWOOD GORE: Representative Danny Gore: [Applause]

DEPUTY CHIEF DAVISON: We'll certainly be in good hands when Danny wins the election.

Thank you very much Danny and family. You have done your usual good chore and brought a lot of good will here tonight. Thank you so very much.

I would like to introduce a person that our new president has given me his name here. I would like to introduce Fred Stanley, who is President of the New England Division of the International Association of Fire Chiefs. Fred, are you here?

[Fred Stanley stood up to applause.]

DEPUTY CHIEF DAVISON: At this time, we'd like to introduce the President of our Association, President Wendall Mansfield, who will introduce the 1992 scholarship recipients. President Mansfield.

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: For the benefit of those who haven't been with us before, this scholarship is given as a tribute to the late Chief James L. Grote of Chester, Connecticut, for his dedicated service to this organization. At his last year's conference we celebrated his 100th birthday, as most of you know, and at that time it was his 69th Conference. He attended all of them and he was the only living Charter member of the Association.

Chief Grote passed away during the past winter and his presence and words of wisdom and guidance are truly going to be missed by us all. I'm sure that his spirit is watching us here tonight and he would be very pleased with our two recipients of the scholarships.

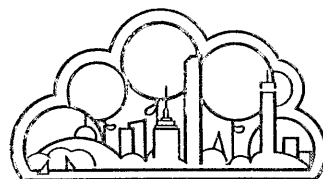

Would the Sergeant please escort Miss Tamera Palmer and Miss Kerry Wehter and their parnts to the front of the room. I would also like to ask Martin Jordan to come forward with the awards. And out of respect to the State of Connecticut because he was a very close friend of Jim's, I would like to ask Director Ed Haber of Berlin, Connecticut if he would please present the awards.

I would like to give you the background of these two recipients. Tamera Palmer attended Bellows Free Academy of St. Albans, Vermont and is the daughter of Chief Gary Palmer of the St. Albans City Fire Department. Tamera ranks first in a class of 211 members. Her activities are Cheerleader, Tri-Captain, two Junior Varsity letters and two Varsity letters, a basketball-softball Junior Varsity letter and two Varsity letters. She is a member of SADD, the National Honor Society, a Junior Escort, a Student Advisor, and on the School Yearbook, church, and she does volunteer work at a local nursing home. She has painted a mural at a local shop. Her hobbies are drawing, listening to music, reading, and biking.

Tamera has been accepted to the Wentworth Institute of Technology to study interior design and hopes to own her own interior design firm in Boston one day.

Kerry Patricia Wehter attended Hingham High School in Hingham, Massachusetts and as I said, the daughter of Chief Richard Wehter of the Hingham Fire Department, our newly elected Secretary-Treasurer, and Mrs. Wehter. She ranks 28th in a class of 192 members. Kerry was on the Honor Roll in Grades 9, 10, and 11. She was national Latin Examination Cum Laude and received a Certificate of Award for outstanding academic achievement in word processing.

Her activities include Figure Skating in the 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th grades, a Figure Skating Competition Volunteer, Walk for Hunger in 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th grades, a Special Olympics Volunteer in the 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th grades, the Learn to Skate Junior Instructor in the 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th grades, the Youth Ministry in the 9th and 10th grades, a Christmas in Roxbury Volunteer Project for grades 9, 10, 11, and 12, and as you may have guessed by now, that her hobby is figure skating. She has also worked at Pilgrim Skating Arena from 1989 to the present. She has been accepted at St. Anselm College in Manchester, New Hampshire and plans to go into a nursing career. Congratulations to both of you students and the parents. [Applause]

[Scholarships awarded by Chief Haber and Chief Jordan.]

plause]

DEPUTY CHIEF DAVISON: At this time, Secretary Jordan will make a presentation to President Mansfield.

CHIEF MARTIN J. JORDAN: Well, Wendall, as you conclude your term, we had another successful year. Our attendance was up and we've had a great banner year. For my last official duty it gives me great pleasure to honor and to present you with the Trumpet For Recognition of Your Office to Chief Wendall Mansfield from the NEAFC 1992. Enjoy it with good luck. [Silver Trumpet presented to President Mansfield] Applause]

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Thank you very much.

DEPUTY CHIEF DAVISON: Our newly sworn President will now swear in the officers and directors of the Association. President Winslow.

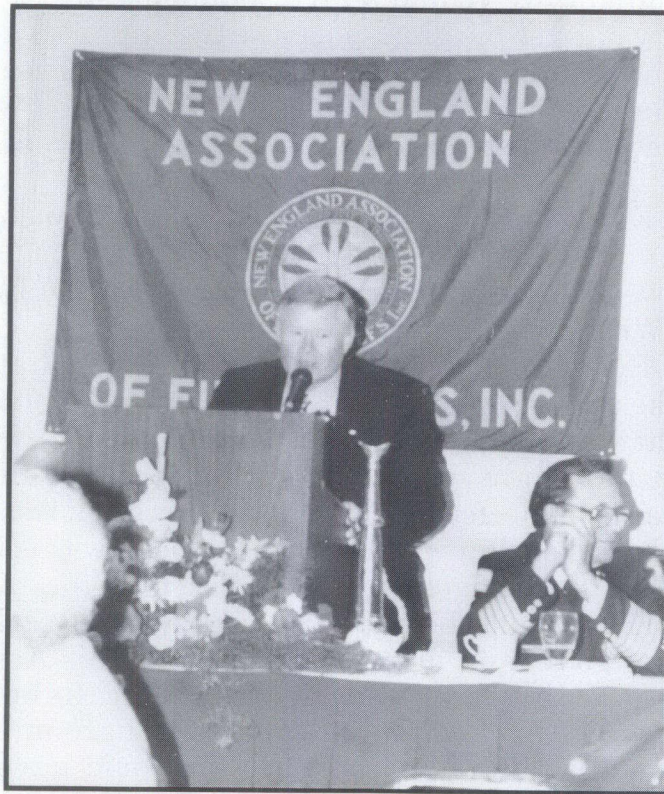

PRESIDENT CARL H. WINSLOW: Before I do that, I would like to make a few comments if I may. Tonight is Chief Mansfield's night and I'll only take a moment. The honor which you have given me tonight comes with mixed feelings. I am pleased and honored to be elected as President of this great Association. However, I am sad that we're not able to bestow this honor on the Chief who encouraged me to become a director. If God had been willing he would be standing before you tonight. Chief Ken Wagner gave a lot of time and effort to this Association and I'm sorry for his death and in my receiving the honor he so richly deserved. Ken, I know that you're with us tonight. I want you to know that I'll do my best as you would have done in carrying out the tradition of the New England Association of Fire Chiefs. Thank you. [Applause]

Now if the newly elected officers would stand and face the podium and those of you up in the audience will come up and join Chief Wehter. Chief.

[Officers sworn in by President Winslow. [Applause]

DEPUTY CHIEF DAVISON: Thank you very much Chief Winslow. And we certainly owe a great deal to those new people who have come into our Association to provide the leadership for the future. As Martin Jordan said this afternoon at the business meeting, the Association is really headed into the future with full form and certainly these new people will lead us that way. we are proud and pleased of their leadership.

Pat Winslow at this time would like to make a presentation to Vendors Association Secretary/Treasurer Emeritus Harold Roeder presents bouquets to Linda Maurais and Amelia Jordan for all their efforts and work in coordinating the vendor registrations and display setups. Thank you ladies.

Phyllis Mansfield.

MRS. PATRICIA WINSLOW: On behalf of the Ladies Committee, I present this gift to you for a job well done. [Applause]

MRS. PHYLLIS MANSFIELD: Thank you. It has been fun and an interesting year getting all the gifts and I want to thank the committee for all their help they have helped me with. And thank you. [Applause]

DEPUTY CHIEF DAVISON: I would like at this time to introduce Harold Roeder, who is the Representative of the Vendors Association. He would like to make a presentation at this time. Harold. [Applause]

MR. HAROLD ROEDER: Thank you for giving me this opportunity to speak to you a minute and in appreciation of the vendors and myself we would like to thank both Marty Jordan and Charlie Maurais for all the work they have done for us in these conventions and the shows and getting it all together. But behind them there are two women that always are running to do this by their husbands. And for this brief moment I would like to give a little vote of thanks to Linda Maurais. Would you please come up here, and Amy.

Thank you for the hours and hours of work that you have done for these men and also for the miles and miles of traffic you have run all over the place and keeping us on track. Thank you very much.

[Bouquets presented to Mrs. Linda Maurais and Mrs. Amelia Jordan.] [Applause]

DEPUTY CHIEF DAVISON: Thank you, Harold, and thank you ladies. At this time we're going to bring to a conclusion our program for the evening. I would just like to leave you with this thought as we do this that the fire service is, as I said earlier, one of the greatest fraternities that ever existed. It brings men and women together to provide for a service that is unparalleled in any other way and for that reason we have a big task to do in the future. As I come to these meetings, and I want to express my great appreciation to my good friend Chief Wendall for permitting me to participate in his particular program. I want to thank him for this opportunity because it is a real honor and privilege to join with you folks to help lead things into the future. O.K.

Amy, would you like to make a presentation at this time?

spent with the New England Association of Fire Chiefs. Little did I know as a little senior that this is what I would be doing for four years of my life. This has been a great year. Phyllis has been great to work with, Phil. and Pat has great things in store for her. Thank you for being part of your group and these guys will take you right where you want to go. [Applause]

DEPUTY CHIEF DAVISON: We have one very superior person to give his final remarks here as Immediate Past President of our Association. It is a great privilege and great honor to recognize at this time for his comments Chief Wendall Mansfield. Chief Mansfield. [Applause]

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: Reverend Clergy, officers, directors, the ladies committee, fire chiefs, and guests: It's been an interesting year for your committees and hopefully it's been for the best of the organization. With our move next year going to the Marlboro Royal Trade Center and the following two years in Springfield to the Civic Center in conjunction with the celebration of Springfield's 200-year Fire Department anniversary, our workload for the Board of Directors is going to increase considerably due to the move to a larger facility and especially the Secretary-Treasurer and Exhibit Committee. Marlboro has 47,000 square feet of indoor exhibit space and in Springfield we'll be using the Civic Center so in both places we are going to be able to put most of the exhibits inside.

The headquarters in Marlboro will be the Best Western Plaza Hotel, which is the largest hotel outside of the Boston area with 445 rooms.

In Springfield our headquarters will be the Sheraton Springfield Monarch Hotel and an airwalk connecting to the Marriott with over 40 stores and shops and restaurants, all inside. The Civic Center is a block away. It has 38,500 feet of exhibit space plus 18,700 square feet of space in the arena where apparatus can be exhibited.

At this time, I'd like to thank you, all of the committees, for a very, very good job, excellent job well done and with a special thanks to President Carl Winslow for all the time he put into the coordination of the Search Committee in setting up meetings for a new Secretary-Treasurer position. But I also would like to thank all of the Vermont group for their support and help at this time. And would you all please stand for Vermont. [Applause]

PRESIDENT MANSFIELD: A special thanks from my loving wife Phyllis for your understanding and support of me. And all of you ladies know that being married to a firefighter isn't the easiest job.

Also a special thanks to Belle and Sidney Dutoth, and Chief Ernie Flanders, who have been coming to these conventions with us -- I have lost count.

At this time I would also like to thank Chief John Connell of Stratford, Connecticut for these plaques tonight for the table. I think he deserves a hand. [Applause]

I feel very grateful to have had a master of ceremonies like this young fellow beside me in the red jacket, Ray E. Davison from Vergennes, Vermont. I have known him quite a few years.

Nothing like Ernie Flanders. We have known each other when he did his and I really appreciate it.

Also many thanks for Representative Danny Gore making the trip from the Northeast Kingdom to conduct the longest campaign. Keep up your hopes, and your persistence eventually will pay off.

I also wish President Winslow great success in the coming year. I know you will do an excellent job for this Association.

Thanks again for the great 70th Conference. It has been a pleasure to serve this organization. And again, everyone please have a safe trip home.

[Standing ovation]

DEPUTY CHIEF DAVISON: Father Foley, may we close, please, with the benediction.

[Everyone stood]

REVEREND FOLEY: Before imparting the benediction, let me say that many people have expressed a concern to me about the caliber of the Memorial Service. In the years to come, I assure you they will continue to be held in a church if at all possible. I know that for 1994, Chief Passanelli from Springfield has assured me he is going to work closely with the chaplain on the committee and make sure we definitely have a memorable Memorial Service. Reverend Chalk and I and the committee are working in the same direction in Marlboro.

Let us pray. As we officially conclude the 70th Anniversary, we thank You Father for gathering together in fellowship and in friendship. May what we have learned during this conference germinate into leadership in our respective communities that truly we may serve You by serving others. Give us the courage to execute our duties in these most challenging times in the face of opposing odds, diminishing budgets and difficult challenges in the firefighting field. Bless our families. Keep us always close to you and grant each of us a safe return trip home. you are one God forever and ever. Amen.

[Amen]

DEPUTY CHIEF DAVISON: God speed and have a wonderful, safe trip home. We'll see you next year. Dancing will follow.

[Applause]

N.E.A.F.C. '93

MOVING FORWARD

FRIDAY JUNE 18TH TO TUESDAY JUNE 22ND, 1993

N.E.A.F.C. 1993 immediately follows the New York State Chiefs conference and begins on a FRIDAY this year. Your officers & directors have been working diligently to bring you the best and largest conference & exposition to date in New England. With a larger exhibit hall and with the close approximation to the New York Chiefs show we expect many more displays and attendees.

Another added attraction is the FIRST NEW ENGLAND REGIONAL FIREFIGHTER FITNESS COMPETITION in co-operation with ARA HUMAN FACTORS located in Burtonsville, Maryland. Those of you who attended the I.A.F.C. conference in Anaheim had the opportunity to witness the national finals. The TOP THREE TEAMS WILL BE ELIGIBLE TO COMPETE in the finals in Dallas, Texas next August at I.A.F.C. '93.

In response to the memberships call, MORE SEMINARS will be offered at the conference and at other times and locations during the current fiscal year.

Mark your calendars and plan on joining us for this exciting new concept as we MOVE FORWARD in the quest of PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT.

Respectfully,

Richard K. Wehter, Chief
Secretary & Treasurer
